Ike's Water Projects Bill Veto Includes Salt-Wahoo

President Eisenhower has vetoed a $1,206,000,000 water projects money bill that included a $90,000 appropriation for the Salt-Wahoo project of Nebraska, the Associated Press in Washington reported Friday.

Other Nebraska projects affected by the veto include $3,000,000 for the Farwell project; $2,338,000, Bostwick; $4,601,035, Frenchman-Cambridge; $525,000, Red Willow Dam; $350,000, Gering-Mitchell; $5,600,000 for channel stabilization on the Missouri River from Omaha to Sioux City; $2,800,000, channel stabilization on the Missouri from Omaha to Kansas City; and $104,000 for the Fort Randall, S.D. Dam power line from the switchboard to the Nebraska line.

The president objected to the bill's provision for 67 unbudgeted projects.

Rejected Earlier

Senate and House conferees had rejected a million dollar request for the Ainsworth project and $310,000 in construction funds for the Salt Creek flood control project. Both amounts had been included in the Senate passed bill, but they were dropped in conference.

Discussion of possibilities of overriding the veto of the big bill with its scores of purely local construction jobs, immediately arose.

Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex), said an effort would be made in the House next Wednesday to override the veto.

The bill would have provided 30 million dollars more than the President requested. The bulk of the money would have gone to the Army Engineers and Reclamation Bureau to plan, build and maintain flood control, navigation, power, beach erosion and reclamation projects.

Main Objection

Eisenhower aimed his main objection to a provision to plan or start 67 unbudgeted projects which he estimated eventually would cost 800 million dollars. In this connection he said:

"It ignores the necessity for an orderly development of America's water resources within the nation's fiscal ability."

The presidential action was disclosed in a message to the House. The White House said it was one of Eisenhower's last official actions before he left for Europe.

The President had until midnight Saturday to act.

S-W Officials Have Hopes For Override

Leaders of the Nebraska Salt-Wahoo Watershed Assn. said Friday there is a "Good chance" the President's veto of the public works bill will be overriden.

"If it is not overridden, we think a new bill will be drafted and passed by Congress and the $90,000 for Salt-Wahoo will be included," Former Nebraska Governor and Salt-Wahoo Assn. Secretary Robert Crosby predicted.

Both Crosby and Assn. President, State Sen. Otto H. Liebers of Lincoln expressed regret at the veto.

"This $90,000 would have given us a start anyway," Liebers said after hearing of the veto. He said they will contact the Nebraska delegation in Washington and urge them to do all they can to override the veto.

NO NUCLEAR TESTS BID MADE BY REDS

...Russians To Refrain If The West Will, Too

Moscow (AP) — The Soviet Union said Friday night it will not conduct any nuclear weapons tests so long as the Western powers likewise refrain.

It also said again it is willing to sign an agreement to halt all tests of the atomic and hydrogen weapons.

The declaration was a response to American and British announcements this week extending the Western ban on nuclear tests at least for the rest of this year.

The official news agency Tass announced the action by the Soviet Union's Council of Ministers.

Saying Russia will not resume its tests if the Western powers do not, the Soviet statement added:

"Only in case of resumption by them of nuclear weapons tests will the Soviet Union be free from this pledge."

Britain Follows

An announcement in Washington Wednesday said the United States was extending a suspension of tests from Oct. 31 to Dec. 31. Britain announced the following day its ban on nuclear weapons tests will go on as long as talks among the 3 nuclear powers on a suspension treaty show some prospect of success.

The Washington announcement of the extension came on the day a 6-week late summer recess was called by Britain, the United States and the Soviet Union in their Geneva negotiations on a nuclear test ban.

The original U.S. test halt was announced Aug. 22, 1958, and was to last one year from the time the Geneva talks began. They started last Oct. 31.

(The Russians have not fired any nuclear explosions that the west has detected since Nov. 3, 1958.)

The Soviet government statement noted the extension by the United States and Britain and said the Soviet Union "has long since been striving for the complete cessation of the tests of all types of nuclear weapons."

Ultimate Goal

An agreement on this question, the statement continued, is the "first step toward the ultimate goal—the prohibition of atomic and hydrogen weapons with the removal of these weapons from the national armaments and the liquidation of all existing stocks."

It asserted the Soviet government on March 31, 1958, had unilaterally halted nuclear weapons tests in the Soviet Union.

"Had the United States and the United Kingdom followed the example set by the Soviet Union, the question of stopping the tests of atomic and hydrogen weapons would already have been finally settled," the statement said.

The Russians blamed the Western powers for failure thus far to reach an agreement in the Geneva test ban talks.

"The fact that the conference, in spite of the long term of its proceedings—almost 10 months—could not accomplish its tasks is explained exclusively by the positions of the Western powers," the statement asserted.

It accused the West of advancing "one demand after another, complicating the achievement of agreement."

Consumers Okays 6 NPPS Power Pacts

Columbus, Neb. (AP)—Consumers Public Power District Directors approved Friday 6 separate power contracts with the Nebraska Public Power System including an important 25-year power purchase contract which will boost power costs to Consumers.

Consumers said the power purchase contract will add about 10% to the cost of power purchased from NPPS and will add about $700,000 a year to CPPD power purchase costs. A study has been initiated on the possible effect of this increase on rates to customers, but no immediate steps are planned.

The Loup River Public Power District of Columbus, already has approved the power contracts, but the Platte Valley Public Power and Irrigation District, the other partner in Nebraska Public Power System, still has to act on the contracts.

Separate Rates

The purchase contract includes separate rates for power produced at the NPPS generating stations and for power purchased from the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation.

It also provides that CPPD will continue to pay NPPS a fee for transmitting the low-cost USBR power, but it retains the option of buying directly from the Bureau of Reclamation.

Under the agreement, CPPD will continue to purchase its power for the eastern system from NPPS until April 1, 1961, when Consumers' 100,000 kilowatt Sheldon station convention steam plant goes into operation. After that CPPD will buy 125,000 kilowatts of power from NPPS annually until 1984. This is subject to certain adjustments including a review of rates every 3 years.

The first of these reviews is scheduled in December, 1962.

Joint Use

Another contract, expiring July 1, 1992 calls for joint use by both agencies of all high voltage transmission lines to assure both of economical operation. CPPD and NPPS will jointly plan future expansion of high voltage lines avoiding costly duplication. This high voltage grid also will handle power coming out of the Hallam project.

The interchange contract, which also expires July 1, 1992 provides that power produced at Hallam, and power produced from NPPS sources will be utilized so that when full capacity is not required, only the most efficiently operated power producing plants will be operated.

Future plant construction will be planned jointly.

Queen Greets Ike At Castle Gates After Stirring Reception By Scots

Balmoral, Scotland (AP)—The Scots Friday gave President Eisenhower the greatest welcome ever accorded a foreigner on his arrival for a social visit with Queen Elizabeth.

They gathered in throngs all along the 40 miles from Aberdeen, where his plane landed from London, to Balmoral. They cheered and waved.

Although several months pregnant, the queen herself brushed aside official plans, left Balmoral Castle, and drove the half mile to the gates of the estate to welcome the first American president ever to visit Scotland.

Friday night, after a picnic on the grounds, Eisenhower and the queen relaxed before a cozy log fire in the castle and talked of peace, babies and absent friends.

Others Take Part

Prince Philip, Queen Mother Elizabeth, and Princess Margaret at times joined the friendly, highly informal conversation before the fireplace.

The peace talk covered the weighty mission that brought the President across the Atlantic to see his co-leaders of the West before meeting Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

The talk on absent friends centered on Mrs. Eisenhower.

Few people went to and from the castle, but the word was brought out that the talk had turned easily to babies.

The queen is expecting her third child in late January or early February.

Meets Children

Ike met her other two children — Prince Charles and Princess Anne—at a castle luncheon.

This was Eisenhower's second visit to Scotland. He visited Balmoral in 1946 as the guest of the Queen's late father, King George VI. At that time he was supreme commander of the Allied Forces.

Scottish officials said that never in their memory had there ever been such an enthusiastic turnout for a foreigner—or anyone else for that matter.

Heat Wave Cools As Rain Moves In

Lincoln's first rain in several weks smashed the oppressive heat amid one of the most brilliant lightning and thunder performances of the season.

The city's temperature early Friday night power-dived from 96 to 67 in a 2-hour period as .60 of an inch of rain fell.

The storm was responsible for a power failure in the Beaver Crossing area which blacked-out television station KOLN-TV for several minutes. Electric company officials said that high winds downed lines which provide power for the station's monitor.

Hebron may have been menaced by a late-season funnel cloud, the Safety Patrol reported, but apparently no damage resulted.

The thunderstorm line that did the heat-breaking trick stretched from west of Lincoln to Omaha, the Weather Bureau said.

Scattered showers and thunderstorms are expected to continue in the east and south Saturday and Saturday night. High temperatures are expected to range no higher than the 80s.

Somewhat cooler temperatures may reach the north and west by Saturday night.

Grand Island reported the state high Friday of 100, with a low of 57 reported at North Platte.

Hail and wind were reported at Wahoo as 1.15 inches of rain fell there. Ashland reported .20, Crete, 1.05 and Beatrice reported a light shower Friday.

'58 Taxes Total Over $98 Billion

Washington (AP) — More than $98 billion in taxes were collected last year by all levels of government in the United States. This amounted to $568 for every person.

The Census Bureau said today federal, state and local governments reported tax revenues of $98.3 billion for their fiscal years that ended during 1958. This was a drop of $300 million from 1957.

On a per person basis, tax collections were down from $579 in 1957. The recession was responsible.

The bureau said the business slump cut federal tax revenues by $1.8 billion. However, state and local governments increased their tax take by $1½ billion—largely by raising tax rates and inaugurating new levies.

No Immediate Effect Seen For Farwell

St. Paul, Neb. — President Eisenhower's veto of $3 million dollars for the Farwell Project will have no "immediate effect" on the project, reports a St. Paul Bureau of Reclamation official.

The official looks for Congress to either override the veto or pass new legislation for the needed funds.

"In the meantime, the project will get an extension of funds from the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation office until a new bill is passed," he added.

Trucker Dies In Fiery Cab After Hitting Train

From Press Dispatches

Hebron, Neb.—Horrified motorists watched while Jesse Dunn, 33, of Hastings, Okla. burned to death in the cab of his cattle truck Friday.

Dunn was driving the middle vehicle in a 3 truck caravan when it collided with a Rock Island freight engine at U. S. Highway 81 grade crossing just inside the Hebron city limits.

Dunn was pinned in the cab, and though the truck was pulled free from the engine, rescuers were unable to free him before the fire reached the cab.

About 25 of the 40 head of cattle Dunn was carrying were killed.

Engine Derailed

The engine was derailed but remained upright. A wrecker was dispatched from Fairbury. The line is a branch running from Fairbury to Ruskin and main line traffic was not affected, but highway traffic was tied up for an hour and 15 minutes.

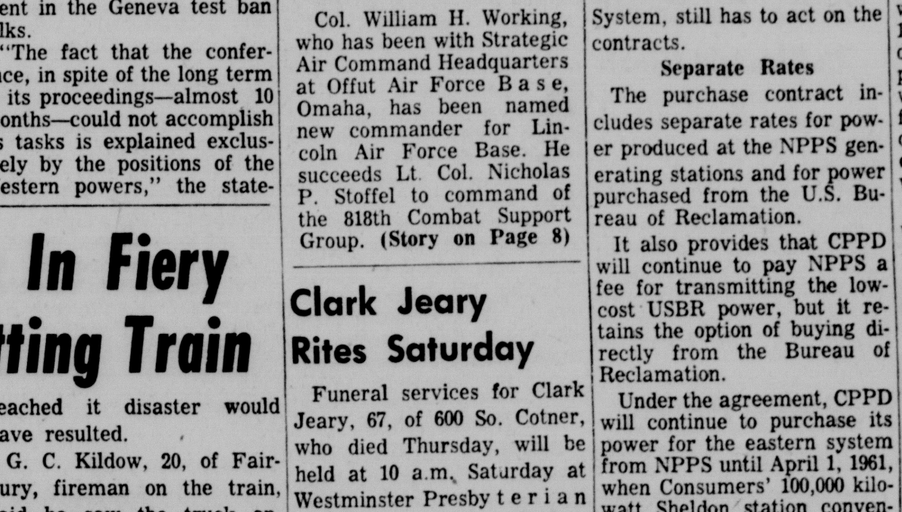

Sheriff H. A. Schoenfield said that two cars back in the 6-car freight was a car loaded with 9,000 gallons of propane gas. Had the flames reached it disaster would have resulted.

G. C. Kildow, 20, of Fairbury, fireman on the train, said he saw the truck approaching and since it appeared it would not clear the train, he pulled the emergency stop. The train was moving about 20 miles per hour, he said.

The trucks belong to Krutscher & Son, Waurika, Okla.

The death brings Nebraska's 1959 highway death toll to 218, compared to 208 at this time last year.

Crash Kills Nebraska Escapee ... Indianapolis

A car carrying two teenaged escapees from Nebraska crashed head-on into a truck west of Indianapolis early Friday killing one youth and injuring the other critically, according to the Associated Press.

Police said the youths, Herman Porter, 18, and Harry Pruitt, 17, escaped from the Orthopedic Hospital in Lincoln where they were under treatment after being committed to the Boy's Training School at Kearney.

It was reported that the car driven by the two was stolen in Plainfield, west of Indianapolis. State police spotted it in Ben Davis, closer to Indianpolis, and chased it.

110 MPH

The police estimated the car was going 110 miles an hour when it hit the truck driven by Elmer Baldwin, 41, of Chicago. Baldwin was not hurt.

Decks Cleared For Ike-Mac Talks

Herter And Lloyd Visit

London (AP) — The foreign ministers of Britain and the United States cleared the decks Friday for a survey of major world affairs by President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Macmillan.

The President and prime minister begin their talks in secrecy Saturday. They will carry on through the weekend.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd brought American and British views into line on a variety of issues involving relations with Russia.

Highlights

These were the highlights given by American and British spokesmen:

1. The disarmament problem.

Qualified sources reported a new Western move is imminent here. American-British-French messages will soon ask the Soviet Union to join in a request to the united nations formally to turn over long-stalled disarmament negotiations to a new 10-nation body to be headquartered in Geneva, they said. There would be 5 Western and 5 Communist nations on the group.

2. U.N. General Assembly problems.

This was presumed by informants to include methods of dealing with the issue of Algeria. A number of Asian and African powers are planning to indict France for its campaign against Algerian Nationalist rebels.

Berlin Crisis

3. The Berlin crisis and the German problem.

In this context it was understood the issue arose of a long-projected Big 4 summit conference. Lloyd apparently restated the British view that top level talks are essential and inevitable. The American view is that the Soviets must first give some clear indication progress is possible, either on a stopgap Berlin deal or on the reunion of Germany.

4. American-British-Russian negotiations for a ban on nuclear weapons tests.

Herter and Lloyd were reported to be still hopeful that an agreement will be negotiated with the Russians allowing for control and inspection arrangements.

5. The spread of the Red-led insurrection in Laos.

Lloyd told Herter Britain still believes Russia will accept the idea of sending a U.N. team of investigators to Laos. Both men reportedly are worried by on-the-spot reports suggesting that Red rebels are winning ground from the pro-Western Laotian government.

FERTILIZER BLAZE BATTLED

Lincoln firemen fought this fire at the Soiltone Fertilizer Co. at 22nd and Theresa Friday for nearly 3 hours before they could douse the stubborn $15,000-$20,000 blaze. (Star Photo)

FERTILIZER FIRE DAMAGE ESTIMATE IS $15-20,000

By Del Harding

A stubborn fire at the Soiltone Fertilizer Co. plant at 22nd and Theresa caused an estimated $15,000 to $20,000 damage Friday.

Plant manager Terry McFarland of Omaha said the $15,000 to $20,000 estimate was on the value of the fertilizer lost, and did not include damage to the building which housed the fertilizer sacks.

McFarland said he discovered the fire in a corner of the plant's main building about 11:40 a.m. and turned in the alarm. It was 2:30 p.m. before the first of 4 pieces of fire apparatus sent to the fire was able to return to its headquarters.

McFarland and two employes, Kenneth Kohlman of Lincoln and Frank Zemula of Omaha, escaped the burning building without injury.

McFarland said the fire spread from a small area in the corner throughout the P-shaped building within a minute.

Sacks of ammonium nitrate fertilizer were piled 15 and 20 high in the building and it was extremely difficult for the 15 firemen fighting the blaze to douse the burning fertilizer sacks.

The damaged building was of sheet steel construction and had a wing built of concrete blocks.

Burned In 1951

McFarland said Soiltone's old wooden building at the same location burned to the ground in 1951.

Soiltone is an Omaha corporation and its offices are located there although the plant is in Lincoln. They have operated a plant on the site for about 14 years.

Former Husker Governor Can Vote Demo

... Was Republican

Greenville, Miss. (AP) — The Washington County Democratic Executive Committee decided to count the ballot of a former Republic governor of Nebraska in the Democratic primary election last Tuesday.

The committee ordered the votes of George L. Sheldon, 89, and his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Anson Sheldon, counted. The committee ruled the challenged votes were handled improperly by an election official.

The 3 were challenged when they tried to vote in primary run-offs in Avon, near here.

H. L. Meredith challenged the votes on grounds that "you have to draw the line somewhere."

Voters do not register by party in Mississippi, traditionally a Democratic state with only a handful of Republicans.

GUNBOATS OF RED CHINESE ARE ROUTED

Taipei, Formosa (UPI) — Chinese Nationalist patrol vessels routed 4 Chinese Communist gunboats in a running battle off the Nationalist-held Quemoy Isands, the Ministry of Defense announced.

The ministry's communique made no mention of Nationalist losses or damage in the brief sea battle.

The engagement followed renewed shelling of Nationalist held offshore islands, breaking the longest ceasefire in the Formosa Strait since the Red touched off their massive artillery offensive in the summer of 1958.

India Braces For Possible Armed Action Against Reds

. . . Chinese Occupy Two Himalayan Frontier Areas

New Delhi (AP)—India braced Friday night for military action if necessary against Red Chinese troops that Prime Minister Nehru said have occupied two Himalayan frontier areas.

"There is no alternative but to defend our borders," Nehru told Parliament grimly.

He announced Indian troop movements, but made clear he hopes the entire issue can be settled by negotiation.

This was the situation as he outlined it:

Several hundred Communist Chinese troops attacked a border post this week, routed the defenders and seized sections of India's northeast frontier agency south of Tibet. That is the area where the Dalai Lama, Tibet's god-king, crossed into exile in India after the Tibetan uprising against Red rule last spring. Three Indian frontier patrolmen are missing and their companions, perhaps out of ammunition, are in retreat.

The Indian army has been ordered to take direct control of the sprawling, 35,000-square-mile agency—the home of independence-minded Naga headhunters. It was previously patrolled only by a semi-military organization called the Assam Rifles. Reinforcements will be dispatched as needed.

A thousand miles to the northwest, the Red Chinese presumably are holding Indian territory in the Ladakh section of Kashmir that they first penetrated in October, 1957.

Both incursions were in areas that, regardless of New Delhi protests, Chinese maps have long shown as Chinese. Peiping, for instance, claims about half of the Northeast Frontier Agency (NEFA), which India separated from Assam a few years ago for administrative reasons.

Conferees Can't Agree

Labor Bill Faces Senate Showdown

Washington (AP)—Senate conferees on the labor regulation bill decided Friday to go to the Senate floor next week for instructions on 3 deadlocked points.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill) told of the decision at the end of the ninth day of meetings between Senate and House representatives trying to adjust different versions of the legislation.

Dirksen framed a resolution calling on the Senate to tell its conferees to accept the House language on secondary boycotts, organizational picketing and no man's land labor cases.

Dirksen, GOP leader of the Senate, is one of 3 Republicans who are the minority group on the Senate conference side.

Tougher Version

Generally speaking, the House language is more stringent than the Senate's, and is accordingly opposed more vigorously by organized labor.

Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass), the conference chairman and spokesman for the 4 Democratic senators comprising the majority for the Senate, announced he would have a counter proposal to Dirksen's to take up on the floor.

Kennedy's resolution will call for the Senate to instruct its representatives to go along with most points in a compromise plan presented by the 4 Democratic senators earlier this week.

This compromise accepts much of the House language on boycotts, picketing and no man's land cases, but adds some provisos designed to protect what the Democratic senator says are legitimate union rights.

The 3 deadlocked issues are:

No man's land cases—labor cases which fall between federal and state jurisdiction; secondary boycotts — labor action such as picket lines directed at a third party not directly involved in a labor dispute, and organizational picketing — use of picket lines in an effort to line up plant workers in favor of a particular union.

Role Of U.S. Secret Service—

Hagerty Lectures British Press

London (AP) — White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty — obviously nettled — Friday gave British newsmen a brief course in the role of the U.S. secret service in guarding President Eisenhower.

London newspapers have been referring to secret service agents as FBI men and as armed hustlers.

Also there have been suggestions that presence of the agents here implied that Britain's Scotland Yard was not up to the job of protecting Eisenhower.

At a news conference Hagerty was asked to explain the part the secret service plays in providing presidential security.

He commented there was a good deal he could say.

Vexation Clear

He said it politely but there was no covering up the fact he had been irked by accounts in the London papers.

Hagerty asserted that along about 1900, the U.S. Congress passed a law stipulating that the secret service—an arm of the Treasury Dept. from then on would be responsible for the security of presidents and their families. Later the law was amended to include vice presidents and their families.

Hagerty explained with a tight smile that until about 1900 "about one out of 3 people took a shot at the president."

Hagerty didn't say specifically that Presidents Lincoln, Garfield and McKinley had been assassinated. The press secretary did say:

"The people of the United States got a little sick and tired of it."

No Confidence

Hagerty then got around to the point of his discourse. He said stories he had seen in London newspapers had implied that the U.S. government had no confidence that Scotland Yard could protect Eisenhower without help from the secret service.

"The responsibility for the President's security in the United Kingdom rests on Scotland Yard," Hagerty asserted emphatically.

He added he had read one story saying that when Eisenhower rode into London from the airport Thursday the chief of the White House secret service detail was in the front seat with a holstered gun.

"That is not true," said Hagerty. "The only American in the car was the President."

Identity Bared

The press secretary said the man spotted in the front actually was a Scotland Yard man. Secret service agents did ride in the car just behind Eisenhower's.

Hagerty next turned to the matter of FBI men—agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation—being something altogether different than secret service agents.

The FBI, he explained, is a criminal investigation unit of the justice department, with no specific responsibility for the safety of the president.

Hagerty touched off a roar of laughter when he went on to say that the secret service has another responsibility — "the counterfeiting of American money."

Correcting his slip, he said in joining in the laughter:

"I meant to say 'prevent counterfeiting.' "

'Hagerty's Hustlers'

The press secretary said also that he had seen references in the London papers to the secret service men as "Hagerty's hustlers," and other accounts saying the agents have the power to arrest outside of the United States. Not true, he declared.

Somebody wanted to know whether there were any secret service men with the President on his visit to Balmoral Castle as Queen Elizabeth's guest.

"A few," he replied, "but the authority (for Eisenhower's safety; is Scotland Yard's."

Noble Search 'Preferential' On FBI List

Washington (AP) — The FBI said Friday it has given a "very preferential" classification to the search for Harlan Lynn Noble, described as a sex maniac.

Noble is wanted in connection with the kidnap-rape of a 6-year-old girl in Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 1.

The FBI is seeking Noble on a federal warrant charging him with unlawful flight to avoid prosecution on state charges of kidnaping and rape. This charge was filed to permit the FBI to join in the search.

The FBI said Noble has a record of sex offenses going back to 1929. He escaped from the Kansas State Hospital at Larned in June 1957. He was transferred to the hospital from the Kansas Penitentiary at Lansing while under a sentence of 10 to 62 years for raping girls 8 and 10 years old.

The FBI search for Noble, a native of Wapello, Iowa, is being directed by the FBI office in Omaha. FBI offices throughout the country have been alerted to be on the lookout for him.

Short Manpower Assaults Cause

Omaha (AP)—Lack of manpower in the police department was labled Friday the underlying cause in recent assault cases on women.

While police sought a motive in the latest of these—a daylight attack on Mrs. Matilda Heine, 74, at her West Omaha home—Safety Director Lynn Carey and Police Chief C. Harold Ostler huddled on the over-all problem.

Files show at least 22 cases of assaults against women reported to police in the last 3 months.

Holdrege Realtor Dies, Headed Firm

Holdrege, Neb. (AP) — Funeral arrangements were pending Friday for L. A. Franzen, 71, longtime Holdrege real estate man.

Franzen died at Rochester, Minn.

He was the senior member of a real estate firm which bears his name. Before organizing the real estate firm, Franzen was in the banking business at Fund and Holdrege.

Survivors include his widow, two sons and a daughter.

Former Mayor Bennett Martin Is Hospitalized

Former Lincoln Mayor, Bennett Martin, was reported in "fair" condition by his doctor Friday after being hospitalized.

Martin, who heads an investment company, was defeated in his bid for re-election this year after taking office following the resignation of the late Clark Jeary.

He is being treated at Lincoln General Hospital.

Chicago (AP) — Two unions Friday asked the Federal Government to intervene in negotiations with two meat packing companies.

The United Packinghouse Workers of America and the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen made the request for intervention in talks with Swift & Co. and Wilson & Co.

The unions also are negotiating with Armour & Co. and have had conferences with all major packers.

The unions are negotiating jointly with Swift and Armour.

There has been no definite word as to whether the workers will walk out if the deadline is reached without a new agreement.

Clear-Cut Difference

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

Perhaps the clearest example of what Nebraska voters did at the polls in 1958 was presented when the House voted on the $1,050,000,000 housing bill. The measure was sent to President Eisenhower with an overwhelming 283-to-105 vote margin in its favor.

Nebraska voters can look at this issue along with the vote of the state's House delegation and decide from there what they want to do in the future. This vote was split right down the middle, Democrats Larry Brock and Don McGinley voting for and Republicans Glen Cunningham and Phil Weaver voting against. It can be assumed that all four men voted their convictions as this measure was pretty free from the excessive pressures of special interest groups which have so characterized some legislation.

Pressure-Free Voting

The bill provides funds for continuation of the nation's urban renewal program, public housing, for loans for construction of college dormitories, for loans for college classrooms and loans for housing of the elderly. It also carries the funds and provisions for continued operation of the FHA.

Undoubtedly, some of the votes against this measure would be explained as a vote for economy, not against the specific points in the bill. But this would be a weak excuse applied to the entire bill as its provisions are many. The real difference in the voting lies in the basic approach of Nebraska's representatives to national legislation.

President Eisenhower has stressed in this housing issue the exercise of free enterprise and the application of strict economy. Cunningham and Weaver cannot, and probably would not, deny that this is a substantial part of the explanation for their vote. While both of these principles are laudable, they do nothing constructive for the country.

Despite cries of inflation and Socialism, the nation has prospered under such programs as these as it has never done before in its history. The times which just about any American will tell you are the best he has ever experienced are the times the President has been trying to sell to the public as economically dangerous and unsound.

Fortunately, Brock and McGinley made up their own minds on the housing bill rather than listen to such baseless expressions of fear. By so doing, they are providing the means by which many of the nation's blighted or slum areas can be cleaned up.

They thereby do away with overcrowding and the spread of disease. Also, another part of the program will make funds available for housing for the elderly of the nation. Public housing would be available for those cities which desire it as well as loans for college dormitories and classrooms.

Where is a provision in the bill which we can say in honesty is not a wholesome thing?

All Talk, No Action

While the President has talked in glowing terms about the need for greater emphasis on education, he has done nothing to provide this emphasis and has opposed the emphasis given by the housing bill. He would tell you, also, that he is for good housing for everyone but would do nothing in a direct way to further this end. How does he propose for the impoverished and the elderly to find this better standard of living?

The difference in these four votes is not economy versus reckless spending or of Socialism versus capitalism. The difference is that Brock and McGinley have voted in consideration of the human element involved and with faith that ours is a system in which every individual can have some hope of rising above the destitute position in which fate might place him.

One Of The Greatest

No tribute to Clark Jeary could be too eloquent or too expansive. Mr. Jeary was the kindest of gentlemen and the best of friends. He was a tireless worker in behalf of his community and his labors were always marked with enthusiasm, ability and optimism.

He was one of the finest if not the finest mayor Lincoln has ever had or will see for many years in the future. One could talk for hours on his many accomplishments while serving as head of the city government. He also served with distinction in the State Legislature and contributed immensely to a wide variety of other civic programs.

He never lost his confidence in young people and was always quick to bring them into any undertaking they would join. He once remarked that he was glad to see some young people taking a part in things as they would some day have to do it all by themselves. Now, that time has come in Mr. Jeary's affairs, but he has made it easy for his followers.

For if they knew him at all, they know that anything worth doing can be accomplished if they are willing to work hard enough at it. Despite his many public endeavors, Mr. Jeary maintained an active ranching interest and dearly loved the informal and uninhibited life this opened up to him. He was equally at home in the cattle yards and the mayor's office.

As a citizen, public and private, he was one of the greatest. With his death, everyone in Lincoln has lost a friend. Through his character and his deeds he will never be forgotten.

Two Fiddles Playing

The last meeting of the City-County Planning Commission brought painfully to mind the fact that Lincoln has been fiddling while things were going to pot. The city hasn't burned down but, figuratively speaking, there are some flames which should be doused.

The commission again threw into the lap of the City Council the unique problem which has confronted the city for a number of years—what to do with the area from 19th to 23rd and P to R. This is not an easy problem to solve for the solution involves urban renewal. Urban renewal, of course, is something we don't have because the city has stumbled along and failed to get in on the program before all federal aid was exhausted.

Now, any new urban renewal program must depend wholly upon an appropriation contained in a housing bill which has just passed the House with an overwhelming vote. While the measure still faces the threat of a presidential veto, there is more of a possibility of its becoming law.

It would seem that an alert City Council would be doing something right now to take advantage of this bill when and if it becomes law. Without it, the hodgepodge of business, industry and housing in the 19th and R area will remain exactly that. All it can be expected to do on its own is deteriorate because time and city policies have just about dealt it a death blow.

Everyone is well aware of the opposition in Lincoln from some quarters to urban renewal. But it is about time the strength of this opposition was tested with a vote on a constructive urban renewal program. If the opposition is in the majority, urban renewal is out and another solution must be found. But if it is not a majority, we are wasting a lot of time and money listening to it.

The other fiddle sounds loud and strong in the form of plans for two new housing subdivisions—right smack in the heart of the proposed Antelope Creek dam area at 56th and Van Dorn. One of these subdivisions would doubtless be a very fine residential development as it would cover some 20 to 30 acres which would form an arm extending between the two main parts of the lake to be formed by the dam.

Another of the subdivisions would take a good part of the damsite itself, thus making the eventual acquisition of the site very costly. The land between the lakes is considered ideal for a park area. But to realize any of the value of this land—a value which will be tremendously increased by the general public's financing of the dam—the public is going to have to own it.

But neither the city, Sanitary District nor any other governmental unit has moved to obtain this vital property. The public is as far from owning it today as it was 10 years ago. The area cannot be held from development forever. Either it must be purchased by the government or private interests permitted to exercise their rights and develop it for housing.

Here again, the City Council needs to go to work and find out what possibility there is for the acquisition of this land. If the city lacks the funds itself, it should at least attempt to co-operate in the purchase with another public body. Much more delay and it will be too late, with a serious loss to the city.

Teacher Probe Called Off

From The Des Moines Register

The house un-American activities committee has shown welcome restraint and responsibility by calling off a hearing which had been scheduled for October into alleged Communist influence among California school teachers.

The committee had been criticized sharply since it announced that it would hold hearings involving 70 California teachers. The Southern California branch of the American Civil Liberties Union had brought suit in federal court in an effort to prevent the committee from releasing the names of the teachers and to block the dismissal of anyone as a result of committee testimony.

The California Teachers Association urged the committee to let the matter be handled by local school boards. The committee agreed to this suggestion and has turned the names of the 70 subpoened teachers over to local school boards. It has asked the school board to furnish it with transcripts of local hearings on these teachers. This procedure, said the committee, will free it to conduct other hearings and give local school boards a "first hand opportunity to acquaint themselves with some of the problems which occur in the fight against Communism."

The committee is wise to recognize that this is a local responsibility. It doesn't require a congressional investigation, complete with televised hearings, to deal with a problem of this kind.

Some Supreme Court justices have taken a dim view of some past hearings held by the un-American activities committee. These hearings seemed to have no connection with the committee's ostensible purpose of developing background for legislation. They seemed to have been held for the purpose of punishing witnesses through publicity without giving them an adequate opportunity to defend themselves.

Dewey Sought To Aid Rockefeller

WASHINGTON—How serious Nelson Rockefeller is about running for president is clear from the fact that he has asked ex-Gov. Tom Dewey to be his campaign manager. Dewey was highly successful in getting Ike nominated and elected even though he never did too well for himself . . . Mamie Eisenhower says that she'll go to Moscow, buy only by boat. She hates long overseas airplane flights . . . the Air Force has caught Gov. Ernest Vandiver of Georgia mooching a free joyride in a national guard plane all over the Caribbean after he finished at the governors' conference. It plans to bill him in the same way it did embattled Gov. Earl Long of Louisiana when he flew to Houston, Tex., (somewhat against his will) to a mental institution. What the Air Force doesn't know is that Governor Vandiver is the nephew of potent Senator Russell of Georgia who sits on Air Force matters as chairman of the Senate Armed Forces Committee. Wonder if they'll really try to collect?

The General Motors Grand Jury — Two junior congressmen have been responsible for two of the most important probes in Congress this year. Frank Kowalski of Connecticut sparked the investigation of GI's used as brass-hat servants, which has already brought drastic changes in the Army. Alfred Santangelo of New York inspired the probe of the munitions lobby . . . Kowalski recently made a broadcast, in Polish, over the Voice of America. Though his parents immigrated from Poland, the congressman's English is far better than his Polish and he had to spend about four hours practicing for a 15-minute broadcast. He did a good job for Polish-American understanding . . . the CAB is getting down to business in a probe of Pan American Airways . . . the Justice Department also means business in its probe of General Motors for dominating over 50 per cent of the nation's auto production. Not even Postmaster General Summerfield, biggest Chevrolet dealer in the world, has been able to stop the General Motors grand jury . . . Congressman Frank Thompson of New Jersey, who got sprayed with acid the other day, finds time to be the Capital's No. 1 advocate of culture, though Congressman Harris McDowell of Delaware is runner-up. They urge that future memorials to great Americans be in the form of living monuments, not rigid stone, and that Keith's famous theatre opposite the Treasury be made a Washington arts center. Morris Cafritz, the big D.C. realtor, has offered Keith's free to the nation's capital, but timid D.C. commissioners say they haven't got the money to use it.

DORIS FLEESON

World Listens As Ike Thinks Out Loud

LONDON—President Eisenhower has reassured the German people that he will not let them down and has moved on to London, which wants assurances of a rather different tenor. London wants to be convinced that the U.S. President will seek new horizons with Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

The President talked to the Germans by way of an open press conference, his first in Europe as president and thought in Bonn to be the first any United States President has ever held abroad. He has not yet scheduled one for the British press, which is already demanding it and is now expected to get it.

Certainly, the President appears possessed of a passion to communicate to the world exactly how he himself views his forthcoming conversations with the Russian premier. Where in the past he has gone months without a press conference, he has had two this week, one in Washington and now in Bonn. He has always had what admiring—or—envious—politicians describe as built-in political antennae.

☆ ☆ ☆

What he has apparently drawn from the upturned faces of his great crowds is a sense that with hope is mingled some fear, lest the existing balance of terror be replaced with something worse. To use his own word, he "stole" an hour from his brief time with Chancellor Adenauer to give the world press more headlines bearing his unmistakable imprint of sincerity and goodwill.

It was he who also said with great rancour that they had barely had time to outline the problems they face.

Still, the admitted fact of the "new start" intruded in many forms. His most positive statement in this regard came near the end when he again used, as at home, the metaphor that he hoped "to melt a little ice" and re-emphasized that he would "not negotiate" with Khrushchev. What he would look for, he repeated, was "an atmosphere in which new attitudes might be developed." He was, he said, "conducting conversations, exploring Mr. Khrushchev's mind." In slightly more affirmative terms this may serve the needs of the British.

☆ ☆ ☆

What the leaders of the West are able to do in that regard may be revealed in the President's television appearance with Prime Minister Macmillan Monday night and in a possible press conference. The British have five days in which to work, including the long and intimate week end the President will spend at Chequers, official residence of the nation's prime ministers.

Rather hesitant questions from German reporters unaccustomed to their newfound prerogative developed some points of apparent major concern to the chancellor. One is the question of West German relations with Poland.

There is pressure in Bonn for closer ties with the Gomulka regime, which is less rigidly Communist. The chancellor is determined not to prejudice West German demands in any future peace treaty for some change in the German-Polish border.

A THOUGHT FOR THE SABBATH

Stories Of Famous Hymns

Crossing The Bar

Sunset and evening star, And one clear call for me:
And may there be no moaning of the bar When I put out to sea,
But such a tide as moving seems asleep, Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell, And after that the dark:
And may there be no sadness of farewell When I embark;
For, though from out our bourne of time and place The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face When I have crossed the bar.

★

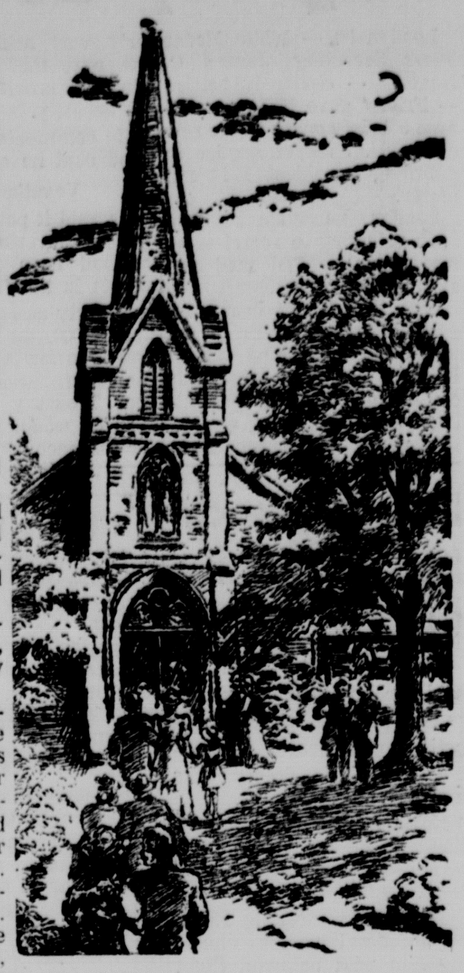

By HORACE B. POWELL

Two very distinguished Englishmen formed a partnership to produce this fine hymn. Alfred Lord Tennyson, England's beloved poet and man of letters, was its author and Joseph Barnby, the famous organist, composer, editor and choral conductor, created its music.

Mr. Tennyson, whose father was a clergyman, was born August 6, 1809 at Somersby, in Lincolnshire. In 1828 he entered Trinity College at Cambridge.

Mr. Tennyson's son and biographer revealed that his father was 81 at the time "Crossing The Bar" was written. The verses were made, he said, "on a day in October when we came from Aldworth to Farringford. Before reaching Farringford he had the moaning of the bar in his mind, and after dinner he showed me this poem written out.

A committee of the Free Church of Scotland engaged Sir Joseph Barnby to set Mr. Tennyson's verse to music for "The Home and School Hymnal" in 1892. The tune, "Crossing The Bar," first appeared in this country in the Presbyterian Hymnal of 1895.

In The Middle

Lincoln, Neb.

Industry and labor are very much in the news these days. I have been interested in the subject since 1912 when I joined the Bricklayers Union. We had a good union. Our by-laws, etc. were written around the United States Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

We had to have stricter rules to govern our selfish greedy members than for our employers. Our contracts with our employers were good, protecting ourselves as well as our employers. Our first breach of contract was made by the union. We couldn't supply the demand so a bunch of floaters and our greedy members pushed through a raise in pay without giving our employers the four months notice. Our contract required us to finish all jobs figured at the old scale. The union men left one at a time, breaking that clause in our contract. Our contract had a clause that out-of-town jobs called for transportation to and from the job. Soon, the honeymoon was over and the contractor-builders had their day. They cut our scale in half and we could pay our own transportation. From then on, supply and demand took over.

There are labor haters and industry haters. If there ever were two segments of our society that should co-operate, it is industry and labor — but no co-operation, and the public is in the middle. Honest and fair-minded people on both sides surely seem to be in the minority. So — the law must govern both.

Our law-makers must govern them. There are some senators and representatives who pussyfoot for votes from labor, some for industry for funds, some play it both ways, so the public is in the middle again.

This selfishness and greed are just as prevalent in the public hearts as they are in in industry and labor, hence a vicious cycle. All of this greed, hate and lust for power are a form of crime. We all must learn that "Crime does not pay." Honest Abe said: "Destroying industry will not help labor."

Look, Ma, No Brains!

Lincoln, Neb.

Gov. Brooks has done a good job as governor, but when he thinks he is going to cut down traffic deaths on the highway by demanding a stiff driver examination, he is mistaken. I have driven since I was 16 years old. I am 60 now, and have never had an accident and hope to the Good Lord I never do. I don't suppose I could pass a stiff exam, as some 20-year-old could.

I'll tell the governor how he can cut accidents if he can figure out how to accomplish it, and that is to jack up some heads and put new heads on with brains. Arthur Godfrey once said that he had talked to lots of people, smart people, but he said 85 per cent of them were raving maniacs when they got behind the steering wheel of a car.

So how would a stiff exam help if it proved only than an individual had two good eyes, legs and arms — but no brains behind a wheel?

Airport Tax

Lincoln, Neb.

I certainly go along with Mr. Dougherty (Star, August 27) on the airport tax matter. Why should the property owner have to pay for a place for the plane owners to land? Too much subsidization.

Denmark's Desirable Accent On Age

COPENHAGEN — Denmark is a remarkable land where to grow old is a privilege, a pleasure, and a cause for wild celebration. Babies are cute, adolescents are problematical, people from 20 to 49 are all right if you like the type.

But when a man reaches 50 he is suddenly the greatest guy in town. Let young women have their wedding day and old women have their first grandchild celebrations — a man's 50th birthday is by all odds cause for the biggest blowout in his life.

This is the day when he becomes "voksen." Meaning "an adult."

The custom is for a man's friends to appear at his home at about 5:30 a.m. on the morning of his 50th birthday. Thus the day begins.

☆ ☆ ☆

At the usual time he goes to his office, fortified with friendship and so on, and there (if the man is at all popular with the staff) an open house is held. All day. Herr Chris Petersen, who celebrated his 50th a few months ago at the office of Pan American Airways, where he is public relations boss, described the buffet and bar setup from 9 a.m. to 4:

Ham steak, turkey, all kinds of fish and pastries, plus a variety of beverages too numerous and lethal to mention here.

At the conclusion of the office day, Chris Petersen went home to a traditional dinner party for the personal friends of a man who has reached 50. It lasts till well into his 51st year.

☆ ☆ ☆

One aspect of life in Denmark that makes it so delightful to grow old is the social welfare program. The Danes seem way ahead of us in planning for the age of retirement.

Every needy old person in the nation gets an automatic pension, out of which he can live almost lavishly. That is because for every old person the state builds a large, almost luxurious apartment. Rent is slightly over $5 a month; meals are 20 cents a throw.

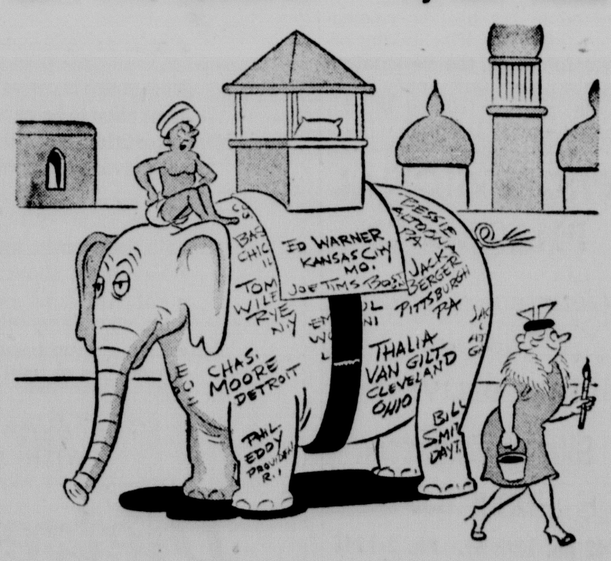

This feeling of social security is probably the reason why here in Copenhagen, one sees ladies in their 70s pumping bicycles, and men in their 90s lying on the beach, puffing cigarillos.

When there is no fear of growing old, age is retarded.

This is an enchanting country for the tourist, but it is much more than that. It is a land where, unlike America, the accent is not on youth and as a consequence we all feel younger with every digested day.

Interstate Work Destroying Valuable Historic Remains

By Bill Anderson

Lack of funds has seriously hampered salvage of historical remains along the Nebraska Interstate Highway, Historical Society Museum Director Marvin F. Kivett said Friday.

"Although the State Highway Department has not turned us down in our request for money, we have received no funds yet for either archaeological surveys or excavations," Kivett told the Star.

State Highway Department Director Roy Cochran said the Historical Society "has not talked to us since the legislature considered this 6 months ago. We believe in following the law. I suggest they contact us."

Transfer Funds

Under the original federal law, funds can be transferred through the state highway department for use in salvage of historical artifacts. The Nebraska Legislature passed an enabling act in the last session whereby this could be done in Nebraska.

Kivett said important artifacts have been destroyed in Nance County near Genoa and in Pierce and Sarpy counties.

Archaeologists are worried about the area at the crossing of the Platte River. "This is a known valuable historical area," Kivett said. "Although the Interstate won't go through there for some time, we want to get there first."

Survey Needed

Kivett said a complete archaeological survey needs to be made along the route. This would require two men who would operate well in advance of construction. "We need at least 2 or 3 months notification prior to arrival of construction workers at a site," Kivett said.

Kivett said the Highway Department is now furnishing blueprints of proposed roads and routes to aid studies. But on the Interstate, work crews "have cut through" sites without informing the Historical Society, he said. "Local people hunting souvenirs have informed us sites are being ripped up. We don't know how important some of these were and I guess we'll never know," Kivett said.

Kivett said the cost per average field season would probably "not run over $5,000 per crew. He said cost per site ranges from "about $100 to $1,000" depending on how much work needs to be done.

Fairbury Helping Clean Little Blue

...Dedicate Sewage Plant

By George Moyer

Fairbury, Neb.—The Little Blue River may be bluer around Fairbury from now on.

This southeast Nebraska community of 6,400 dedicated a new $245,000 sewage disposal plant Friday. And they built it practically on their own.

T. A. Filipi of the Sanitation Division of the State Department of Health, featured speaker at dedication ceremonies, said that "Fairbury has completed this project without coercion of any kind from anybody."

First Of Kind

"We are glad they have decided to help clean up the Little Blue," he said. Fairbury's installation is the first of its kind on the Little Blue.

R. B. Denney, attorney for the Fairbury Board of Public Works, said the project was constructed with revenue bond money totalling $163,000 and a federal grant of $82,000.

Denney said the project was completed within 3 years after it was planned. Also present at the dedication was Glen Hopkins of the Kansas City Public Health Service.

Explains Financing

Mayor Harry Stearns welcomed the visiting dignitaries to the dedication and then turned the platform over to Denney who explained the plant's financing.

The plant, which was turned on at the ceremony, aerates the city's sewage, separates the sludge and allows the clear water to flow into the river. The sludge is later buried.

In a state suggested clean-up of the Blue River system, Beatrice and Seward will also soon open sewage plants.

Bands To Gather For Fairbury Show

The 25th annual Fairbury Band Festival will be held next Sunday, Aug. 30, in Fairbury's City Park.

Ten bands are slated to appear including Washington, Kan., Western, Narka, Kan., Munden, Kan., and Odell (combined), Wilber, Crete, Geneva, Beatrice, and Fairbury.

Eight concerts will be given beginning at 1:00 p.m. with each band giving a half-hour concert. The program will be climaxed in the evening with a massed band concert, featuring 350 select musicians from the participating bands. Each guest director will conduct one number. The session, at 8:00 p.m., will be highlighted by vocal solos by Mrs. Frank Wells of Omaha, a flute solo by James Chatelain, and trombone trios from all the bands playing "Holiday for Trombones."

An annual feature of the evening will be the presentation of the Citizenship award by the General Squires Post No. 3113, VFW. Kenneth Foust of Fairbury was last year's winner.

Mother, Sons Given Paroles

Atlanta (AP) — Two young Negroes who practically grew up in prison were reunited with their mother Friday as all 3 were released under parole.

Mrs. Rosa Lee Ingram, 54, and the sons, Sammy Lee, now 25, and Wallace, 27, had served 11 years for the slaying of John Stratford, a 66-year-old white tenant farmer.

As she walked from the Colony Prison Farm at Milledgeville, Ga., Mrs. Ingram declared, "The burden has done fell off me. I feel like I can live happy now — me and my children."

The Ingrams first were sentenced to death for the 1947 killing, which followed an argument over a straying mule. The sentences were commuted to life imprisonment amid a great deal of agitation from all parts of the country.

Communist front organizations made the Ingram case a cause celebre. Defense fund campaigns were staged and several delegations appeared before the parole board and governor seeking freedom for the trio.

The mother said she believed Sammy Lee and Wallace will do all right now.

"It looks like they're going to be good," she said. "I hopes they'll continue on that way."

Van Pelt Denies $1,294.25 Appeal From ASC Ruling

A $1,294.25 suit brought by R. B. Elliott, a Wayne, Neb., farmer, against the U.S. government, was dismissed Friday by Federal Judge Robert Van Pelt of Lincoln.

Elliott had claimed this amount was due him on land placed in an acreage reserve on an appeal from the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

The state ASC ruled no payment was due on 61.2 acres taken out of production because another 65 was put into production, even though more had been retired than was required.

Judge Van Pelt ruled in effect that the ASC finding was final and there was no appeal jurisdiction to the federal courts.

Catholic Women Plan Coming Year's Activities

Some 50 delegates from the 13 Deaneries and the chairmen of 19 committees of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women presented plans for the coming year at a board meeting.

The Most Rev. James V. Casey, Bishop of Lincoln, outlined the projects for the coming year, and preliminary plans were made for 29th Annual Convention in McCook Apr. 20, 1960.

Mrs. Eugene P. McDonald of Nelson was elected to fill the vacancy of 3rd vice president created by the resignation of Mrs. Charles Hughes.

The Spring Board Meeting will be held Feb. 2, 1960 in York.

Edythe Klumpp Gets Death; She Accuses Lover

Cincinnati (AP) — Edythe Klumpp was sentenced to death Dec. 15 despite a last-minute statement that it was her lover, William Bergen, who committed the murder for which she was convicted.

Mrs. Klumpp, a 41-year-old divorcee and mother of 4, was convicted July 2, of killing Bergen's estranged wife, Louise, 32. Mrs. Klumpp and Bergen, 31, admitted they had been living together as man and wife for 5 months.

Bergen was informed at his place of work in Washington, that Mrs. Klumpp had accused him of slaying his wife.

"There's nothing to it," Bergen told a reporter. "It's entirely false. What she hopes to gain I don't know."

Bergen is an employe at the Navy's Bureau of Supplies and Accounts.

The statement by Mrs. Klumpp was read to the court just before the sentencing.

She stood tight-lipped and showing no outward emotion as her attorney, William F. Hopkins, read a 5-page statement which he said she gave him Aug. 17 after telling the story to the Rev. Oscar Minyard, the jail chaplain.

In it, she not only accused Bergen of being involved in the killing of his wife, last Oct. 30, but also said he was the one who burned the body at Lake Cowan in nearby Clinton County.

Butler Raps GOP Stand On Bond Rate

Washington (AP) — Paul M. Butler, Democratic national chairman, said Friday that administration's "high interest policy" has resulted in more than $25 billion in subsidies to money lenders.

Butler made the statement in criticizing President Eisenhower's renewed plea to Congress last Tuesday to eliminate the 4¼% interest ceiling on long-term government bonds.

House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex) has said he sees little chance of such action this session and that the Senate wouldn't approve it anyway.

"The Republican Administration," Butler's statement said, "is irrevocably committed to a policy of high interest rates and tight money. Democrats quite properly oppose this policy, under which all of the people are increasingly exposed to what is really a new tax—a tax not voted by the congress, and a tax which is payable not to the government but to the money lenders."

Cogswell Will Includes $3,750 For Charities

Charitable bequests of $500 each were to the Nebraska Veterinary Medical Assn., the Lincoln Salvation Army office, Omaha's Children's Memorial Hospital, Bryan Memorial Hospital, the Waverly Cemetery trustees, the Waverly Methodist Church and Tabitha Home. Cedars Home for Children was left $250.

Betsy Beck Is Bride

MRS. STANLEY EDWARD STUMPF JR.

Summer blossoms and greenery appointed the chancel of Christ Methodist Church for the wedding of Miss Bettybelle (Betsy) Beck, daughter of Mrs. Adam J. Beck, and the late Mr. Beck, and Stanley Edward Stumpf, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Edward Stumpf of Gretna, La., which took place on Friday evening, Aug. 28. The Rev. Nye Bond solemnized the 6:30 o'clock ceremony.

Miss Judith Louise Beck, as her sister's maid of honor and only attendant, appeared in a frock of white silk organza over mint green taffeta. The mint green tone was repeated in the wide cummerbund, and also in the brief veil. She carried a bouquet of green and white carnations.

The bridegroom's father served as best man, and the ushers were Arnold Drake Beck, brother of the bride, and Donald Burt.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of white taffeta. Lace patterned the Empire bodice to create an off-shoulder neckline and the brief sleeves and the voluminous skirt extended to waltz-length. A lace half-hat, dotted with sequins, held in place the lace-banded shoulder-length veil.

Mr. Stumpf and his bride will reside at 6440 Claiborne Ave., New Orleans.

The bride attended the University of Nebraska where she is a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. Mr. Stumpf was graduated from Tulane University, New Orleans, where he is a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity. He now is attending Tulane School of Medicine, and is a member of Nu Sigma Nu, medical fraternity.

Suburbia Is Filled With Fun Activity

PARK MANOR

Visiting in Lincoln last week were Mr. and Mrs. James B. Woodford of Dallas, Tex., who were guests at the home of Maj. and Mrs. Paul Ecelbarger.

On Sunday, the Ecelbargers entertained 6 couples at a brunch at their home honoring the Woodford couple.

Returning home last week after a 10-day vacation in the south were Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Dunn and their daughter, Mary Jane.

The Dunn family, accompanied on the trip by Mrs. Dunn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sugden of Burr, visited in Oakridge, Tenn., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bell, and toured Mammoth Cave in Kentucky and Andrew Jackson's home, the Hermitage, as well as visiting other historical sites.

Learned that Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Tanderup are the proud parents of a daughter, Sharon Kay, who was born at St. Elizabeth Hospital last Tuesday, Aug. 25. Included among Sharon's most ardent admirers are her brothers, Stephen and Scott, and sister, Suzanne.

The young lady's maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Beckman of Lincoln, and Mr. and Mrs. George Tanderup of Obert are the paternal grandparents.

Mention of the younger set reminds us that Margarite Gillingham, daughter of Maj. and Mrs. Rowley Gillingham, celebrated her fifth birthday on Friday, Aug. 21, at an afternoon picnic and party at her home.

Joining in the fun were Kathy and Ricky Delp, Candy Beach, Danny Maser, Carol Chill, and the honoree's brother, Mark.

Evening Service

The altar and chancel of First Trinity Lutheran Church near Beatrice was appointed with lighted white candles and bouquets of white chrysanthemums and pink carnations Friday evening, Aug. 28, for the marriage of Miss Janice Lee Buss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Buss, to Wayne Edward Hahn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hahn, all of DeWitt. The lines of the 7:30 o'clock service were read by the Rev. Melvin Tassler of Lincoln in the presence of 200 guests.

Wearing frocks in the petal pink shade fashioned with bodices of lace and full skirts of silk organza over taffeta were Miss Kathryn Leefers of Syracuse, as the maid of honor, and the bridesmatron, Mrs. Robert Wohlers of Lincoln. The attendants wore brimmed, picture hats of lace and carried cascades of pink carnations and ivy. Miss Mary Jane Buss and Wayne Buss of DeWitt, sister and brother of the bride, lighted the chancel candles.

Joseph Hahn of Beatrice served his brother as best man, and seating the guests were Allan Hahn of Shelton, also a brother of the bridegroom; Larry Buss, brother of the bride, and Harold Stokebrand, DeWitt.

The bride chose for her wedding a gown of white imported silk designed on princess lines. Alencon lace traced with seed pearls outlined the rounded decolletage of the sculptured bodice, and the wide skirt was accented by an inserted band of pleated silk ending in a back bow edged with lace. A half-hat of the silk held her illusion veil, and she carried an arrangement of white Fujii chrysanthemums and ivy strands.

Upon returning from a wedding trip to the Ozarks, the couple will reside at Milford where the bridegroom attends the Milford Training School. Mrs. Hahn is a graduate of Bryan Memorial Hospital School of Nursing.

Cathedral candles in wrought-iron candelabra ornamented with salal leaves, white gladioli and chrysanthemums, appointed the chancel of the Methodist Church in Siloam Springs, Ark., on Friday evening, Aug. 28, for the wedding of Miss Arla Janelle Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert William Jackson of San Antonio, Tex., formerly of Lincoln, and James Ellsworth Decker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Ward Decker of Elmira, N.Y. Dr. Roy Bagley, minister of the Methodist Church at Camden, Ark., read the lines of the 8 o'clock service.

Miss Janice Witt, Waco, Tex., was her cousin's flower girl, and her twin brother, James Witt, was ringbearer.

Randolph Barry Decker of Elmira, N.Y., served his brother as best man, and seating the guests were Kenneth Neal Lowrance, Florissant, Mo.; Armand Lee Janssen, Geneseo, Kan.; and Edward Allen Conyers, West Chicago, Ill.

The bride's gown of white tissue silk was designed in the Victorian mode. Alencon lace traced with pearls and paillettes framed the portrait decolletage of the long-sleeved bodice, and panels of the lace were repeated on the extremely full skirt which was caught into a butterfly bow at the back and extended into a chapel train. Her illusion veil was held by a jeweled coronet.

Mr. and Mrs. Decker will reside in Siloam Springs where both are students at John Brown University. They are members of the Science Club, Aviation Club, University Cathedral Choir and are staff members of the campus newspaper.

Mrs. Marian Newman was the only attendant and with her after-five frock of navy crepe she carried a bouquet of pale blue carnations.

Neail Hand of Lake Zurich, Ill., served his brother as best man.

The bride appeared in a pale blue lace sheath, and her brow veil was held to the head with a velvet bow which reflected the shade of her gown. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations and blue forget-me-nots.

Following the reception, also held in the garden, Mr. Hand and his bride left for a short honeymoon trip after which they will reside at 5340 N St., in Lincoln.

The 7:30 o'clock ceremony was solemnized by Dr. Floyd O. Rittenhouse, president of Potomac University, Berrien Springs, Mich.

Miss Bonne Brown of New York City, as her sister's maid of honor, and the bridesmaids, Miss Marilyn Lang of Loma Linda, Calif., sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Edith Baldwin, Parkersburg, were frocked in shrimp pink organza over taffeta in the waltz length.

A crown of pearlized blossoms held her illusion veil.

Mr. and Mrs. Lang will reside in Lincoln where the bride, a graduate of Emmanuel Missionary College, Berrien Springs, Mich., and Columbia University graduate school, New York, is a member of the music faculty at Union College. Dear Abby . . .

A Dog's Life!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My problem is my wife and her dog. We've been married 14 months. I'm a simple, hard-working guy of 25 and she is 22. I bought her a pup because she always wanted one and her parents wouldn't let her have one.

Well, she doesn't know the first thing about training a dog or taking care of it. That dog hasn't had a bath since we've had him and he smells like nobody's business.

He has the run of the apartment and you can imagine what the place looks like. I work odd hours and can't train the dog myself. She even forgets to feed him. I can't reason with my wife. She cries when I mention giving it away. Can you help me? DESPERATE

DEAR DESPERATE: A dog who hasn't had a bath in over a year must be even more desperate than you. If your childish bride wants to keep the dog, insist that she learn to care for him—and see to it that she does. If she refuses to learn, or is negligent—give the poor animal a break and find him a good home.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: My husband's first wife passed away six years ago. She is buried in Kansas City, Mo., where his grown children live. He has a double marker on her grave. Also a plot right next to hers with his name already on the marker. All that's missing is the date of his death.

This was done before I came into the picture so I'm not blaming anyone. But now I am his wife. I don't want him buried there. Who am I going to be buried by?

SECOND WIFE

DEAR SECOND: Yours is one of the difficult problems a woman faces when she marries a widower. These arrangements are obviously the result of a promise made long before you came into the picture. Don't attempt to change anything. Express the desire to be buried near your own parents, if possible.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: I am a 15-year-old girl and have started to get gray hair. What I am worried about is can worrying cause gray hair? What can I do about it?

GRAY AT 15

DEAR GRAY: Worrying does not cause gray hair but it can cause other far more serious difficulties. Those who gray early in life usually inherit the tendency from their parents. You can take the problem to a good hairdresser—or you can leave it alone and enjoy that distinguished look. I recommend the latter.

If you have a problem, write to Abigail Van Buren in care of this paper. She will be glad to answer your letter. For a personal reply, enclose a self-addressed envelope.

Few Changes In Store Says New LAFB C.O.

The new commander of Lincoln Air Force Base — Col. William H. Working — anticipates no major changes in LAFB's role in the near future.

"Things have been operating very smoothly here and I hope they continue to do so," the 40-year-old commander said.

Col. Working, who was formerly with Strategic Air Command headquarters at Offut AFB near Omaha, was named Friday to succeed Lt. Col. Nicholas P. Stoffel as base commander and head of the 818th Combat Support Group here.

Lt. Col. Stoffel, who replaced Col. Felix Hardison in May, has been named deputy commander for civil engineering, a key post on Col. Working's staff.

Other major staff changes announced by Col. Thomas G. Corbin, 818th Air Division commander: Lt. Col. Joe V. Low Road Bids Announced; One Is Rejected

The State Highway Department announced Friday apparent low bids of $4,023,871 on a Thursday bid opening. However, one controversia' Douglas County project was rejected.

The rejected project called for grading, pavement, culverts, guard rail and asphalt surface on U.S. 30-A between Waterloo and Neb. 38.

State Engineer Roy Cochran said the project was rejected because both bids received on it were too high.

Cochran said the project was an undesirable one from a contractor's viewpoint since it involved widening the road and still maintaining the traffic flow.

Wages Issue

He said he was surprised that the department had received any bids on it because of the nature of the work.

This is one of the two projects about which the Associated General Contractors had charged that Governor Brooks was unrealistic in setting minimum wages.

The other Douglas County project which came under criticism on wages was a two-mile stretch on Neb. 31 between Elkhorn and Kennard.

That project was awarded to Parsons Construction Co., Omaha, for a total bid of $263,818.

2 In Lancaster

Included in the low bids were two Interstate Highway projects in Lancaster County. State Engineer Roy Cochran said contracts would not be let on these projects until after Congress adjourns.

The Interstate Highway financing problem now is pending before Congress.

The estimated cost of the letting had been advertised at $4,500,000. The low bids announced, however, do not include the rejected Douglas County project nor a Richardson County project on Neb. 62 from Stella east. That is pending.

Three Airline Assessments To Be Studied

The State Board of Equalization will meet Monday to review assessments made by the tax commissioner on the flight property of three airlines which operated in Nebraska last year.

Wilber Houtchens, deputy tax commissioner, said airline flight property-planes and equipment in them — is the only assessment made by the state tax commissioner. And by statute the Board of Equalization is required to review the assessments to determine if the law was followed in setting them.

The tax commissioner has arrived at the following assessment values for the airlines:

United Air Lines $508,245; Braniff Airways, Inc., $98,975, and Western Airlines, $59,120.

State Levy Applied

To these values the statewide levy of 51 mills is to be applied.

The board is also expected to officially certify to counties the amount of the contested part of valuations for railroads.

For example: if a county assesses a railroad at $3 million and the railroad goes to court maintaining its value is only $2 million, the contested part is $1 million, and the board must certify that fact to the county. This way the county taxes only the uncontested part until the courts decide the rest.

In Nebraska this year three railroads are contesting their valuations in the State Supreme Court.

The board is also expected to authorize the correction of two mathematical errors in two assessments of the value of operating franchises held by public utilities.

Liquor Licenses Are Suspended

The State Liquor Control Commission suspended two licenses and cited a third licensee for violation of the Liquor Control Act.

The beer license of Robert L. and Norma J. Klein (123 No. 14th St.) Lincoln, was suspended for 10 days beginning at the closing hour on Sept. 12 for accepting merchandising credit in excess of 30 days.

The wholesale beer license of Leon F. De Boer who operates the Midwest Beer distributing Company at Hastings, was suspended for 10 days beginning at the closing hour Saturday night for failing to deliver a monthly distributor's report for June to the commission.

The commission charged Julius J. Stillmock, Bellevue, with selling to minors and set a hearing for Sept. 21 on the possible suspension or revocation of his Class C liquor license.

The Title's The Thing

New York (AP) — Sometimes the play's not the thing — it's the title. In his early playwriting days Tennessee Williams wrote a drama called "The Fugitive Kind." Even he regards it as a minor effort. Later one of his Broadway hits was "Orpheus Descending." Now that play is being made into a movie, but the film producers decided they needed a different title. A list was submitted of alternates titles and the winner was "The Fugitive Kind."

Firm Incorporates

Articles of incorporation have been filed by LAMBCO, Inc., a plastics firm in Auburn, the Nebraska secretary of state's office reported Friday. Incorporators of the firm are Lambert Blecha, Dale Cullen and John Ferneau, all of Auburn. A total of $50,000 in Capital stock was authorized.

Hearing Set

The Nebraska Railway Commission has set a hearing for Sept. 4 on the application by the Northwestern Public Service Co. of Huron, S.D., to issue and sell $975,000 aggregate principal amount of first mortgage bonds. The firm has lines in Nebraska.

Challenging Problem—Find New Uses For Crops

By Ellis Rall
United Press International

Finding new industrial uses for Nebraska's agricultural products "is a challenging problem" but important to the state, a state official said.

He is state agricultural director Pearle F. Finigan who is administrator of the new agricultural research levy passed by the 1959 Legislature.

That levy, which runs for 6 years and is expected to bring in $302,630 this biennium, is designed to find new uses for agricultural products.

Nebraska is the pioneer in this field among the states, Finigan said. It is the only state so far to take on such a project.

"This is a real challenging problem and we have a long ways to go," he remarked.

"We do think it is important that some effort be made to try to move farm products into industrial channels."

Find Project

The first major hurdle to overcome, Finigan said, is to find a project upon which to concentrate.

A 4-member advisory committee was designated in the law to help with this.

Members of that advisory committee are V. E. Rossiter of Hartington; Maynard Jensen of Aurora; E. T. Johnson of Fremont and Robert Rauner of Gurley. Dean W. V. Lambert of the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture is an ex-officio member.

The next meeting of the group is Sept. 18 after a trip Sept. 17 to the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture's pilot plant at Peoria, Ill. The plant is a research laboratory for the industrial uses of cereal grains.

Finigan said after a project is selected, it is hoped that a panel of 5 scientists can be named to consult with from time to time.

One value of the new law, he said, is that the department can take some of the research that has been done throughout the country and then carry it through to try to work out some of the processing and other problems.

Two Promising

Two projects now appear encouraging, he said. These are turbo-processing of wheat to separate the high protein gluten from the wheat and the possibilities of high amylose corn.

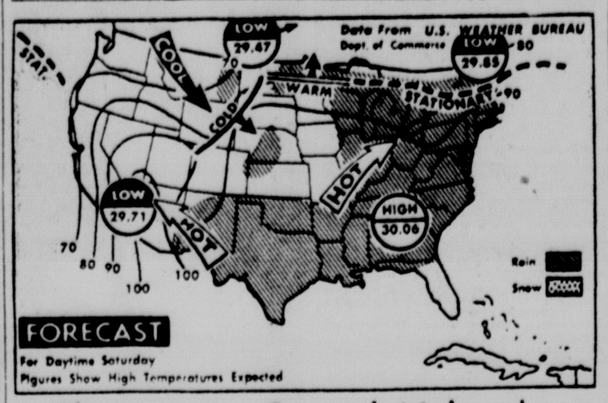

Ordinary corn, he said, contains about 27% starch while high amylose corn has 60 to 90%.

Finigan said he thought the high amylose corn was suitable to be raised in Nebraska. From it can be made water soluable and edible wrapping materials and paper products, he said.

"We think this amylose type corn has real possibilities," he said.

"At present, however," he added, "we are searching and trying to consolidate some of this information and are looking into some of the different fields."

No Clues On Missing Farmhand

Left Cornfield Irrigation Job

Ogallala, Neb. (AP) — A week of intensive and methodical search of the area 3 miles southest of Lewellen where a 21-year-old farmhand, Larry Swanson, disappeared has failed to shed any light on the man's mysterious disappearance.

Garden County sheriff Ray Lloyd of Oshkosh said none of the developments thus far have indicated foul play.

Sheriff Lloyd and Deputy Sheriff Eugene Santero headed a 45-man party in a close-formation search of the down-river area along the North Platte River without finding any trace of the missing man. A similar search party worked other areas.

Relatives said Swanson left his billfold at his home and had no money with him. He was wearing a blue and white plaid shirt with short sleeves, blue jeans and laceup boots with crepe soles and heels when he disappeared from a cornfield he had been sent to irrigate on the Dave Delaet farm 3 miles east of the highway 26 bridge southeast of Lewellen Friday morning. Swanson is 5-11 and weighs about 165.

A neighbor, Neil Kleist, said he talked to Swanson about 6 o'clock the morning he disappeared.

Shoeprints, believed to be Swanson's, were traced from the field to the North Platte River, across two channels and a sandbar before they were lost on a grassy bank of the second channel.

Swanson is married and the father of two children.

Death Shots May Have Been Heard

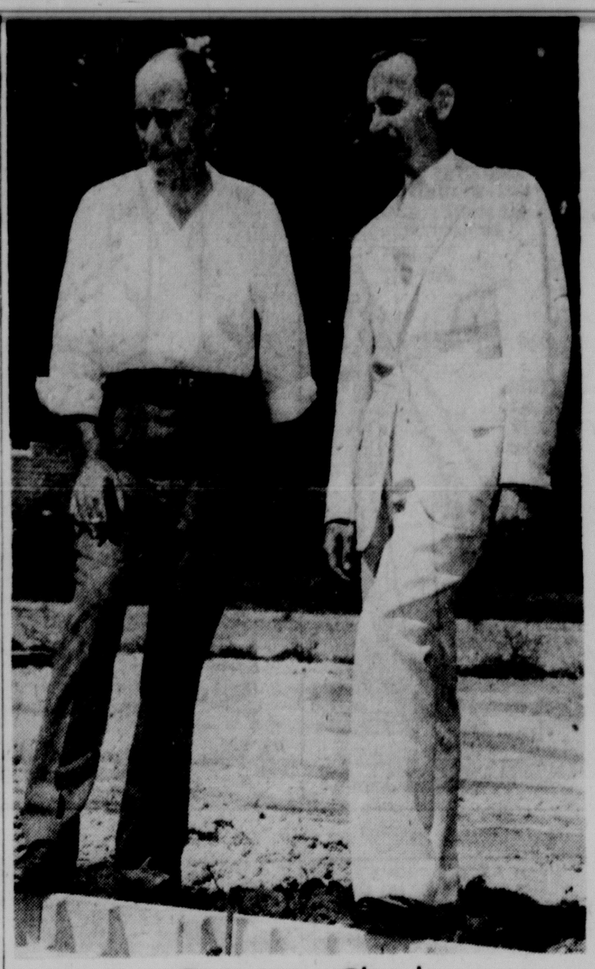

Omaha (UPI)—Police were investigating the possibility that someone heard the shots which killed James Howard Calloway.

The log of police radio dispatches shows that a cruiser was sent to the neighborhood where the 51-year-old man was shot to investigate gunshot reports.

However, the cruiser officer said he found nothing in the area and the name of the caller was not recorded.

Calloway was found later shot to death in his car.

Several suspects have been questioned, but officers said none was considered a prime suspect.

Progress Check

—One Dream Coming True—

Syracuse Center Nears Completion

By Gene Budig

Syracuse, Neb.—Dreams sometimes come true.

And if you don't believe it, just talk to a few of the folks around this quiet rural community.

After decades of yearning, Syracuse and the immediate area will have one of Nebraska's best equipped medical centers.

Ready First Of Year

Thanks to the efforts of Doctors C. J. Formanack, C. R. Williams and H. S. Gately, all of Syracuse, the $90,000 center will be ready shortly after the first of the year.

The physicians spent many an hour mapping out the building plans. "This center should more than take care of the public's needs," Dr. Formanack said.

The people believe it will fill the bill, too. Here are two quotes of Syracuse businessmen:

"It's one of the greatest things that's ever happened to this community."

"From all that I've observed, the center should suit our medical needs."

However, construction work on the 44 by 88 foot building is at a stand-still due to the steel strike. Dr. Formanack said word has been received that the needed steel should be here before September.

Even with the delay, the physicians are hoping the center will be in operation early in January.

Always Adequate

"Our medical facilities have always been adesaid, "but now, we'll have plenty room to use them."

Present plans call for a staff of 10 persons, including 4 physicians and a lab technician.

Employment Branch

Sidney, Neb. (AP)—The Sidney office of the Nebraka State Employment Service has announced that a branch office will be opened at Kimball once a week.

Union-Barge Co. Negotiations Collapse

St. Louis (AP) — Negotiations between the National Maritime Union and the nation's 4 largest barge lines, which appeared close to settlement Wednesday, collapsed Thursday, said Federal Conciliator E. J. Barry.

He said no further talks would be scheduled until "both sides are willing to negotiate in good faith."

Barry said a company offer was not satisfactory to the union on most issues, including vacations, length of contract, company contributions to pension plans, job security and wages.

Details of the companies' offer were not available.

The Federal, Union, American Commercial and Mississippi Valley barge lines called in their boats July 1 when the NMU and two other unions — Masters, Mates and Pilots and Marine Engineers — refused to extend their old contract. No further meetings are scheduled between the latter two unions and the lins either.

Wage scales for the river boat workers range from $950 per month for master pilots to $385 for deckhands. All the union demands haven't been revealed, but the pilots want a $150 a month wage increase.

Basilio (left) winces as Fullmer lands punch.

Fullmer By KO In 14th

...Basilio's Seconds Stop Fight

San Francisco (UPI) — Gene Fullmer, a battling backtracker from Utah, won the NBA world middleweight championship Friday night on a knockout over Carmen Basilio in the 14th round.

The fight was stopped early in the 14th stanza by Basilio's seconds and brought a tremendous round of boos from the crowd of about 12,000 in the Cow Palace.

Fullmer had just landed a stunning right to the jaw when Angelo Dundee, Basilios acting manager, yelled to referee Jack Downey to stop the fight.

Basilio protested and tried to keep on going, but was stopped by his seconds. The time was 39 seconds of the 14th.

Fullmer, a 7-5 underdog, was well ahead on points at the time, and the only way Basilio could have won would have been by a knockout.

Basilio was weaving on his feet, groggy, when Dundee leaped onto the ring apron, yelling:

"Referee, stop the fight!"

The bout, under California rules, is officially a knockout for Fullmer.

It was a bruising battle from the opening gong with Basilio forcing the pace and getting his face painted with lefts, rights and elbows for his trouble.

In nearly every round Basilio backed Fullmer into the ropes—or was decoyed by Gene—and then Fullmer would come out swinging with lefts and rights that rocked Basilios head.

Because he backtracked, a la Gene Tunney when he won the heavyweight crown from Jack Dempsey more than 30 years ago, Fullmer got nothing but boos when he left the ring.

However, it was part of the strategy planned by Fullmer and his wily manager, Marv Jenson.

They had 3 plans—and all of them worked.

Through the first 8 rounds, Fullmer backtracked steadily, and then reached out with a counter-punching left jab to keep the onrushing Basilio off balance. Always, Fullmer's blows were to the head.

Then in the 9th round, Fullmer suddenly shifted his attack. He sank a left wrist-deep into Carmen's belly and the Syracuse, N.Y., fighter doubled up and covered his face and stomach with his arms. Fullmer couldn't get in to apply the finishing touches.

Fullmer switched from head to stomach and back to head again through the next 3 rounds. Then he became a headhunter.

In the 13th, with Basilio—who weighed only 156 to 159 for Fullmer—obviously tiring, Gentleman Gene started leading. He jabbed Basilio all through the round, never rushing, never backing up.

In the 14th he came out like a tiger. He landed a crashing, straight right to Basilio's chin. The 32-year-old veteran wobbled. Gene rushed in for the kill. He landed glancing rights and lefts to the head and when Carmen failed to put up his hands to defend himself, the seconds asked that the match be halted.

Basilio's best round probably came in the 7th when he shifted his attack to the body and landed several solid blows before Fullmer got around to covering up.

There were no knockdowns and no serious damage. Basilio suffered a "mouse" under his left eye and Fullmer was bleeding slightly from the nose after the middle rounds.

See more on Fullmer's strategy on page 14.

Elks Perform Expected Public Service—Rain

...Chiefs Washed Out

By Don Bryant

Lincoln Lodge No. 80 of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks has a long history of community service.

Friday night the Elks broke Lincoln's hot, dry spell to add to their previous laurels in the field of public service.

They didn't do it with a rain-making machine. Rather, they held Elks Night at Sherman Field.

And for the 4th straight year the festivities were marred by either rain or the serious threat of rain.

Friday night a furious gully-washer turned the trick, wiping out a 2,567 turnout for the Lincoln Chiefs.

As a result of the washout the Chiefs will meet Sioux City in a doubleheader tonight, starting at 6:30 p.m. Gates will open at 6 p.m. Ira Hutchinson Night ceremonies will be held between games.

It was sprinkling when the game started Friday night—following short pre-game ceremonies—but the Chiefs went right to work and built up a 2-0 lead in the bottom of the first.

Don Bacon's walk, a booming center field triple by Don Gordon and Jim Lynn's infield hit provided the pair.

Sioux City and the rain came on fast in the top of the second. Horace Garner opened with a double, and with 2 out he scored on Norm Shill's single. When the deluge finally hit with full force the Soos had the bases loaded and Chief Starter Ron Boodworth was in serious strouble.

Umpire Ralph Bernardini took care of the crisis by clearing the bases and sending the players wading for the clubhouse.

Bunk Warren (2-3) will probably get the nod in one of Saturday's pair, but Skipper Ira Hutchinson is undecided on his other starter.

In the prelim to the doused main event, the Elks League All Stars took a 10-2 decision over the Lincoln Air Force Base Flyers

Groundskeepers Battle In Flag Race

Cleveland (AP)—The crucial weekend series here isn't just the Chicago White Sox vs. the Cleveland Indians. It also might be called Emil Bossard vs. Luis Aparicio.

Bossard, the Indians' groundskeeper, reportedly predicted to New York manager Casey Stengel the other day:

"Chicago won't steal any bases against us this weekend."

Undoubtedly he had in mind little Luis, whose larceny on the base paths has given Cleveland a lot of trouble.

Stengel, according to Cleveland News writer Hal Lebovitz, was inclined to believe Bossard but asked, "How can you soak this field any more than it is now?"

"That's my secret," Bossard chuckled.

There is nothing illegal about wetting the base paths to slow them down. But doesn't the slow track hurt Cleveland runners too?

The Indians have won 8 straight at home, and all but one of those contests was won with home runs. The slow field doesn't affect the long ball.

Stengel, whose Yankees lost two games to Cleveland this week, reportedly told Bossard:

"I don't blame you fellas for fixing your field. We just came from Chicago, and do you know what my players told me? They said the base paths were hard there, but the back part of the infield was soft. They had it fixed so their runners could run. And they also had it fixed so that the ground balls we hit would slow down enough for Aparicio and (Nellie) Fox to grab 'em near the grass and throw us out."

The groundskeeper at Chicago is a Bossard also. He is Gene Bossard, Emil's son.

MacKay Saves Yanks Split As Cup Opens

Olmedo Beaten Badly

...Doubles Set

Forest Hills, N.Y. (AP) — Big Barry MacKay of Dayton, Ohio, stole the thunder of his more illustrious teammate, Peruvian Alex Olmedo, Friday and hammered the United States into a split with Australia in the opening two singles matches of the Davis Cup Challenge Round.

Under heavy pressure after Wimbledon champion Olmedo had gone down before Neale Fraser in the opener, the 6-4 Air Force private turned on an exhibition of sparkling, inspired tennis to cut down Rod Laver 7-5, 6-4, 6-1.

In a staggering upset which shook the favored American team Fraser, his lefthanded service coming off his racket like cannon shots, whipped an off-form Olmedo in a two hour, 19 minute duel 8-6, 6-3, 6-4, 8-6.

The crowd of 10,000, which sat almost boredly through the opening match, rose to its feet repeatedly to cheer MacKay's powerful performance.

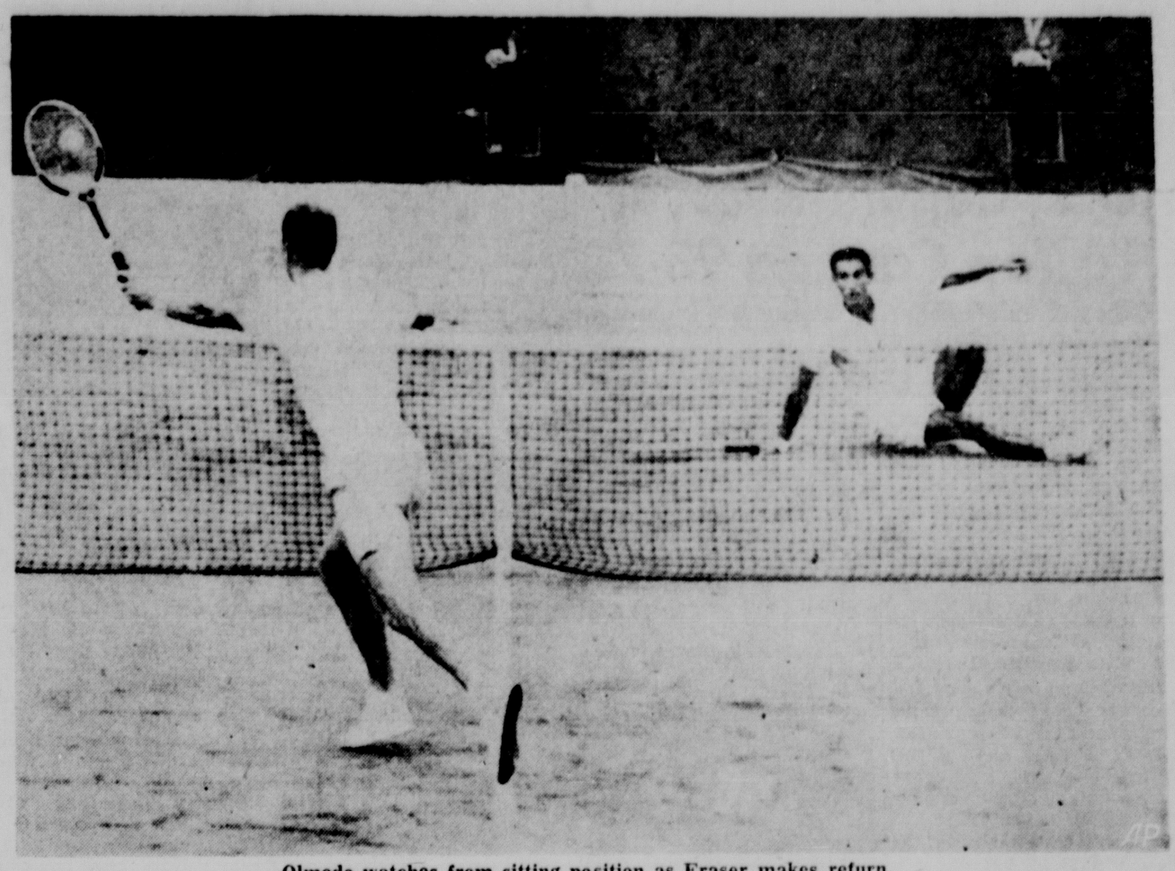

The opening day split throws added importance on today's doubles match which sends Australia's Wimbledon and U.S. champions, Fraser and Roy Emerson, against the makeshift U.S. team of Olmedo and Earl Buchholz Jr., of St. Louis.

At 18, Buchholz is the youngest player ever to compete in the Challenge Round. Nevertheless, it was his spectacular serving and volleying performance which carried Fraser and Emerson to 5 sets in the U.S. final last week-end at Brookline, Mass.

Decision in this 16th straight Challenge Round meeting between the United States and Australia now must go to the final day, Sunday, when Almedo plays Laver and MacKay meets Fraser in the final singles. Victory goes to the winner of 3 of the 5 matches.

Olmedo, the lend-lease Inca from Arequipa, was supposed to be the savior of the Davis Cup this year for Uncle Sam. But that honor went to MacKay, a slashing, reckless cannonballer who suddenly has found finesse.

The crew-cut midwesterner—who will be 24 Monday and who will get out of the Air Force 3 days later—played with little caution against Laver but he had the delicate shot when he needed it and his all-around court play was brilliant.

Olmedo watches from sitting position as Fraser makes return.

4 Pan-Am Records Fall

...Stormy Start For Big Show

Chicago (AP) — Four meet records were fashioned and 4 champions crowned in track and field Friday night as the 3rd Pan-American Games competition got off to a stormy start both literally and figuratively.

The records came in the high jump, hammer throw, 10,000 meter run and the women's 60 meter trials.

A 20-minute cloudburst interrupted the track competition in arc-lighted Soldier Field while during the day, disputes and protests popped along the far-flung Pan-Am front.

The champions crowned were Al Hall of the United States in the hammer throw after a tape measure review; Oswaldo Suarez of Argentina, who retained his 10,000 meter title in record time; the USA's Charlie Dumas who shattered the meet high jump record, and Chile's Marlene Ahrens who won the women's javelin.

Hall was declared the hammer throw winner several hours after Olympic titlist Harold Connolly of the U.S.A. was announced the champion with a toss of 195 feet, 11½ inches.

A later check, however, trimmed Connolly's distance to 195-11, the same as Hall. But Hall had the second best toss of the two, 192-4½ to 191-5. Both were credited with sharing a Pan-American record of 195-11.

Argentina's Suarez sprinted to record shattering mark of 30 minutes, 17.2 seconds. The former record was 31:08.6, established by Curt Sone of the USA in the first Pan-Am Games in Buenos Aires in 1951.

Dumas vaulted 6-10½, shattering the games record of 6-7⅛ set by Ernie Shelton of the USA in 1955.

Miss Ahrens, second in the 1956 Olympics, hurled the javelin 148 feet, 10½ inches. Second was the USA's Marjorie Larney at 143-2½. Third place went to Amelia Wood of the U.S.A. with 140-11½.

Far away from the track scene at Soldier Field, the United States' basketball teams opened up with victories. The men defeated Canada 93-73 with West Virginia's Jerry West dropping in 12 quick points in the opening minutes of the last half to break up a close game. Uncle Sam's girls edged Brazil 45-43.

U.S. fencers moved into the finals of the foil team competition with victories over Uruguay, Cuba and Venezuela.

But before the competition opened today the games were caught in a swirl of disputes and protests on a broad front.

Venezuela lodged a formal objection against the use of Gen. Eduardo Yanez of Chile as a judge in the equestrian events; Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Mexico and Uruguay charged training facilities were inadequate for the modern pentathlon; and Argentina protested the lack of shells for rowing—a situation that was remedied by the arrival of a flotilla of boats.

On the field of sport, Grant Golden of Evanston Ill., won a first round tennis match by beating Jose Ravelo of the Dominican Republic, 6-0, 6-0, 6-0; Mike Green of Miami defeated David Selley of Bermuda, 6-1, 6-0, 6-1. Myron Franks, of Miami, the 3rd seeded player, drew a bye in the first round and crushed John Bassett of Canada in the second, 6-1, 6-0, 6-1.

The United States was roundly beaten in its own national sport, Baseball, in the opening game of the competition. Venezuela accomplished the feat, 11-6. Jose Flores, a 158-pound first baseman, drove in 4 runs on 3 hits for the victors, including a tremendous home run 6 rows deep into the upper left field deck at Comiskey Park.

Argentina opened defense of its Pan-Am soccer title by downing the United States 4-1. Miguel Basilico led the Argentine's attack with two goals. Edward Murphy tallied the lone U.S. goal in the opening period.

Haiti, the United States' opponent today, also won, defeating Cuba 8-2.

The United States and Canada shared opening day honors in the yachting competition. Each won 3 events. U.S. skippers took the Stars, Lightnings and Flying Dutchman classes. Canada scored in the 5.5 meter class, the Dragon class and the Finn monotype competition.

HAPPY HAROLD PICKS:

Harold

(Editor's Note: Winning at the races is just a matter of using a little horse sense. Recognizing this, the Star sports staff continues to bring you Happy Harold, whose Fairground selections are guaranteed to come straight from the horse's mouth.)

"Too much paperwork these days," Clocker Charlie complained this morning as he paused at the oatbin to tear up a few parimutuel tickets.

"Used to be they paid you off in hard money. When you won you could jingle it so everybody could hear. Now it's just paper, coming and going."

I could see O'Red was working up a horse laugh, so I steered Charlie aside to give him my Saturday selections. The way his eyes bulged as he wrote them down leads me to think he wouldn't mind if money were made in barnyards, so long as his pockets were full of it.

Pauper Prince, a 3-year-old bay colt belonging to Kansan L. B. Ryan Sr. of Abiliene, ran contrary to his name and astonished a Fairgrounds gathering at Friday's 8-event card when he won the first race and returned $99.20.

Lollar's Homer Rips Indians 7-3

Cleveland (AP) — Sherm Lollar's 3-run homer broke up a tie in the 7th inning Friday night as the Chicago White Sox ripped second place Cleveland 7-3 and padded their American League lead to 2½ games in the opener of a 4-game showdown series. The Indians had won 8 in a row.

A crowd of 70,398 — largest of the year in the majors — sat in as Bob Shaw went all the way for the White Sox, giving up only 7 hits. The 26-year-old right-hander, who has won 8 of his last 9 decisions, now has a 14-4 record.

Lollar'sh omer broke a 3-3 tie. It came at the expense of Jim Grant, who took over from starter Jack Harshman in the 5th. Grant, the losing pitcher, started strong and put the White Sox down in order in the 6th.

Nellie Fox started the 4-run 8th with a single. Jim Landis also singled. Then, Lollar lifted his 20th homer of the season over the left field fence. Minnie Minoso, Cleveland's left fielder, almost caught the ball as it cleared the fence.

Dejected Carmen Basilio after loss.

'Managers Smarter Than Fighters'—Says Fullmer

San Francisco (AP) — "I changed my style and we fought according to plan," bruised but happy Gene Fullmer declared Friday night in his steaming dressing room.

"My manager, Marv Jenson, mapped it out. I was reluctant at first, but I went along.

"Proves managers are smarter than fighters."

The strong boy from West Jordan, Utah, won by a knockout in the 14th round when Carmen Basilio's chief second, Angelo Dundee, called to referee Jack Downey asking the fight be stopped.

Amid the dejection in Basilio's dressing room, newsmen were told that Johnny DeJohn, who has managed Basilio but could not be in his corner Friday, had shouted to Dundee. DeJohn does not have a California license since he has been under investigation in his home state of New York.

He sat close to the ring watching the action.

Back in Fullmer's quarters Jenson revealed the plan was to jab, knock Carmen off balance and then "stiff him with a right hand."

The Utah pair discarded Dullmer's usual rush, crowd and stay on the offense style.

Basilio said he was acting when he floundered in the 14th, but Fullmer, now recognized as champ in 48 of the 50 states, said Carmen "sagged and his eyes went funny after a terrific right to the temple."

Fullmer praised Basilio for putting up a "tough, great" fight.

"If you don't believe I got punched," Fullmer said, "look at my face."

Gene had two bruised eyes and a cut in the corner of his mouth.

Basilio, bone-tired and with both eyes cut and swollen, had no alibis and no complaints.

He immediately plunged both hands into ice buckets and disclosed both were hurt early—his left in the second round and his right in the 4th.

He voiced no objection to the fight having been halted but said he wished he had been allowed to continue.

"I was hurt but not as bad as it looked," Carmen said. "I was exaggerating to try to lure Fullmer in but he wouldn't come. Then they stopped it.

"Fullmer is the strongest guy I ever fought."

Mays, Sad Sam Beat Dodgers

Los Angeles (AP) — The San Francisco Giants fattened their National League lead to 3 games and frustrated a crowd of 66,068 Friday night by flattening Los Angeles, 5-0.

Sad Sam Jones went the route for the Giants, scoring his 17th victory and Willie Mays provided the bulk of the offensive punch with a 3-run homer.

The Giants, who had lost 3 in a row, were billed as a weary club, but they opened most energetically, accumulating 7 hits and all their runs off loser Don Drysdale in the first two innings.

Jones, now 17-12, gave up 8 hits but didn't walk a man and struck out 11. This was his 5th complete game against Los Angeles this season. In those 5 games he has allowed only 5 runs and has pitched two shutouts.

Drysdale, who was 14-6 at the second All-Star game break early this month, suffered his 4th straight loss. He is now 15-10.

In 1 2-3 innings Drysdale was naled for 4 doubles and a homer.

Willie McCovey, the remarkable San Francisco rookie, extended his hitting streak to 12 games with a double and a single and drove in a run. But Mays was the batting star with a homer, a double and a single in 4 trips.

The crowd was about 5,000 under the general expectation. A few had predicted it might reach 80,000. The Giants now have whipped Los Angeles 6 times in 9 meetings at the Coliseum this year, but the Dodgers still hold a 9-8 edge in the season series.

Baltimore Toys With Redskins

Baltimore (AP) — The doughty defense of the Baltimore Colts hogged the attention again here Friday night even though it yielded its first touchdown of the exhibition season during a 23-10 victory over the Washington Redskins.

The redskins didn't cross the goal until the last minute of the game in the high 90-degree weather before 22,409 fans.

SHRINE TO PLAN 1960 CONTEST

Trustees of the Shrine Bowl will meet in October to complete arrangements for next year's game, President R. C. (Bob) Russell said Friday.

The first Shrine Bowl game in Omaha, featuring selected teams of outstanding high school seniors, netted approximately $50,000 for the Twin Cities unit Shriner's hospital for crippled children at Minneapolis.

"On behalf of the underprivileged crippled children in our Shrine hospitals, the Shrine Bowl of Nebraska wants to thank the hundreds of individuals and firms who had anything to do with making this first game a reality and a success," Russell said.

Washington (AP)—Art Ditmar pitched two-hit ball and drove in 3 runs with a homer and a single here Friday night as the New York Yankees downed Washington 4-0 to snap a 4-game losing streak.

The only two Washington hits came with two out in the second inning. Billy Consolo singled and took second on a scratch single to second by pitcher Camilo Pascual.

Braves Use Cubs For Drill

Chicago (AP) — Several Milwaukee Braves regulars complained before Friday's contests that they wanted more batting practice, so they extended it into their game against Chicago and battered the Cubs 9-3.

The Braves crashed 3 home runs during the first 4 innings to run up a 7-0 lead, then coasted to victory on Lew Burdette's 17th complete game and 18th win of the year against 13 losses.

In the major leagues, only Johnny Antonelli of the Giants has won as many.

Hank Aaron rocketed his 34th homer for Milwaukee's 7th run in the 4th inning. The ball impaled itself on a wire backstop at the rear of the deep left field bleachers. No one was on base.

Joe Adcock drove his 20th homer—also with the bases empty—more than 400 feet into the center field stands in the 3rd. Del Crandall hit his 16th later in the frame with a man on.

Frank Torre singled home Milwaukee's first two runs in the first inning. Eddie Mathews, who'd hurried his teammates in and out of the batting cage before the game to get in as many swings as possible, clubbed in the Braves' 3rd run with a second inning double.

The Braves' next 3 runs in the 3rd chased starter Bob Anderson who had shut out Milwaukee 3-0 Monday night.

Anderson took the loss, his 9th in 20 decisions.

Robin's Tests Are Negative For Diabetes

Philadelphia (AP) — A series of tests to determine if pitcher Robin Roberts was afflicted with diabetes or some other internal disorder was reported as negative here Friday.

Dr. George Laquer, team physician of the Philadelphia Phillies, said extensive tests on the veteran hurler disclosed, "His sugar tolerance is normal." Roberts will leave to join the Phillies in Pittsburgh tonight and probably will be the starting pitcher.

Dr. Laquer asserted he is placing the 32-year-old right-hander on a "modified diet until such time as we can determine what caused the abnormal reaction in our preliminary checkup."

A routine examination of the squad disclosed Roberts had an excess of sugar in his system. The club subsequently announced the husky pitcher would not accompany the team to Pittsburgh.

State Shooter Finals Victim

Vandalia, O. (AP) — Clyde Bailey of Oquawka, Ill. won the 60th grand American Handicap trapshooting championship in an after-dark shootoff tonight over Harold J. Lippold of Omaha, Neb.

The two broke 99 of 100 to outshoot a field of 2,392 — greatest in trapshoot history—and then staged a 50-target extra heat for the title.

Trapshooters Elect

Vandalia, O. (AP) — Ernest Jelley of Kansas City, Mo., has been elected president of the Amateur Trapshooting Assn. of America, succeeding Herman R. Peterson of Dillon, Mont.

McCook's Bill Steinecke To Realize Fondest Wish

By Paul LeBar
(Last of a series)

McCook, Neb. — Bill Steinecke — big, burly and affable 34-year veteran of organized baseball, including the last 4 years here — is beginning to realize one of his fondest wishes of recent years.

The culmination of that desire is imminent — whenever his McCook Braves cinch the Nebraska State League flag. The season ends Sept. 7, and the Braves — rich with talent — have been in command of the race since mid-season.

Bill, who broke into baseball as a catcher in 1926 and once caught behind Bill Dickey for the 1944 New Yrok Yankees, believes this year's McCook crop of rookies has been his best, "potentially."

"My other ball clubs were different types," the sage Steinecke recalls. Along that line he reserves a special spot for the 1958 McCook club which won 18 straight games at the tail end of the NSL campaign.

Part of the reason for McCook's success in the league this summer has stemmed from the money the Milwaukee head office invested in its first-year candidates.

Steinecke calls young Dennis Overby, 17, a lefthander with "big league potential." Overby's price tag was reportedly "around $100,000."

The current Braves are also older than other rookie clubs Steinecke has inherited.

A native of Cincinnati, O., Steinecke runs the McCook operation with the assistance of his daughter Lois, a 21-year-old Florida U. coed who serves each summer as the rookies' business manager.

The Steinecke home base is St. Augustine, Fla., where Bill scouts for Milwaukee and helps in winter league baseball and spring training.

McCook's civic club is a group known as Cibola Inc., organized to promote public entertainment of varying natures. The Republican Valley Baseball Club Inc. sponsors the Braves.

Nat Tolman, chief of irrigation operations and maintenance for the Bureau of Reclamation's Kansas River district, heads the city's 7-member baseball board.

Division point on the Burlington Railroad, McCook is also county seat of Red Willow County, an irrigation development center and the home of Nebraska Governor Ralph G. Brooks.

Tolman acknowledges, "We think it (baseball) builds McCook as an entertainment center . . . If the people get the habit of coming to McCook and they like it, we think they'll come back."

Steinecke views the Nebraska State League's position in the state this way:

"I think its been great to have major leagues bring baseball into this country. If the cities will improve their parks, they'll be able to keep it."

Lighting for the field, however, will not be available during the 1959 season. All Dana home games, beginning with Peru State Sept. 26, will be played on Saturday afternoons.

Gernert's Homer Beats Orioles, 6-4

Boston (AP) — Dick Gernert tagged a two-run homer with one out in the 10th inning Friday night for a 6-4 Boston Red Sox triumph over Baltimore.

Gernert, who had tied the score 4-4 as a pinchhitter in the 8th inning on a sacrifice fly, leaned into a 3-2 delivery by loser Billy Loes to decide the contest.

Bo Wininger Captures Milwaukee Open Lead

Milwaukee (AP) — Veteran Bo Wininger, winless on pro golf's tournament trail since 1956, calmly sat out a heavy rainstorm and then splashed home with a 5-under-par 65 Friday for a one stroke lead at the halfway mark of the $35,000 Milwaukee Open.

The 36-year-old Oklahoman, who plans to limit tour appearances starting next month, picked up 5 birdies with some fine putting to surge into the lead with a 36 hole total of 131.

Just one stroke back, deadlocked with 132, were former PGA and Masters champion Doug Ford of Cyrstal River, Fla., and young Doug Sanders from Miami Beach. Ford matched his opening round 66, while Sanders had a 67 to go with his first day's 65.

Wininger, who calls Oklahoma City home but plays out of Odessa, Texas, sank putts ranging from 7 to 35 feet before the downpour interrupted play as he left the 14th hole. After a 45 minute delay, he picked up his clubs and cautiously played out the water soaked course.

"When I found thay had assigned me locker No. 13, I felt I was going to have a good tournament, Wininger said. "Thirteen has always been my lucky number."

He explained that he wore No. 13 as a high school football player, flew plane No. 13 in naval flight training and had jerseys numbered 13 as a football player with St Mary's Pre-Flight during World War II.

Schedule In Line For Stock Races

Stock car races are scheduled for Capitol Beach again tonight.

The new and expanded race program gets started at 8:15 p.m. on the Lincoln Speedways track. A demolition derby wil highlight the evening's 8-event bill.

Kozmin Brothers Join Their Parents In Russia

. . . It's A Confused And Awkward Reunion

Moscow (UPI)—The 4 Kozmin boys of Chicago were reunited Friday night with their Russian parents, whom they had not seen in two years.

It was a confused and awkward reunion, a meeting of strangers.

Rostizlov, 12, was the only one of the boys who could remember Russian well enough to speak with his parents, whose English is limited.

"There, there," said Mrs. Yuri Kozmin to one of her frightened children. "You're back with mother now."

The 4 boys began a new life in the homeland of their parents, displaced persons who lived in Chicago several years until they decided to return to their native Russia. The boys were American citizens.

Legal Wrangle Ends

A Chicago court several days ago ended a legal wrangle that had kept the children in orphanages and children's homes over protests of their parents and Russian authorities.

Yuri and Nadejda Kozmin Friday night addressed the boys, formerly known as Richard, 12; George, 11; Paul 10; and Peter, 3, by their Russian names of Rostislav, Yuri, Pavelis and Petya.

The boys got their first fascinated glance at their new brother Nikolai, not quite 2 years old, who was born in Moscow.

Congress Windup Is In Doubt

Chances Of Address By Mr. K Almost Nil

Washington (UPI)—Weary Democratic and Republican leaders indicated Friday that Congress still will be around when Soviet Premier Khrushchev arrives in town Sept. 15.

The lawmakers once hoped to wind up the first session of the 86th Congress this week-end, or at least by Labor Day. But they've abandoned this dream in the face of such time-consuming issues as labor reform and gasoline tax hikes.

Prediction Junked

Senate GOP leader Everett M. Dirksen (Ill) has discarded his prediction that Congress would adjourn Sept. 5. He said it now looks like anytime from Sept. 12 to Oct. 1.

Acting Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield (Mont) agreed that the legislators couldn't get everything done next week. He shied away from speculating any further.

So it appeared that any Congressmen wishing to greet Khrushchev when he arrives in Washington could do so. Few were expected to take advantage of the opportunity. Chances of the premier addressing a joint House-Senate session are almost nil.

Labor Bill A Must

Most members of Congress feel they don't dare go home to face their constituents without passing some kind of a labor reform bill. They also are confronted with foreign aid appropriations, and legislation to keep the interstate highway program going.

President Eisenhower gave them a little added business Friday. He vetoed a $1,206,748,549 public works money bill that ignored his "no new starts" plea.

The bill carried money for 67 new flood control, navigation or reclamation projects and funds to begin planning 30 others. The President wanted none of these. His veto means Congress will have to act on the bill again.

FARMER PRODUCE PRICES DIP

Washington (AP) — Prices farmers received for crops and livestock dropped one-half of 1% in the month ended Aug. 15, the Agriculture Department said Friday.

The department's monthly farm price report also showed the cost of supplies purchased by farmers fell one-third of 1% during the month.

Farmers' returns in mid-August averaged 80% of parity. This compares with 81% in mid-July and 85% in mid-August a year ago.

Mountain Tumble Victim Recovering In Switzerland

Sion, Switzerland (AP) — Tom Fisher, 22-year-old Omaha student who fractured his skull in a fall in the Swiss mountains two weeks ago, Friday night was reported slowly recovering in the Sion Cantonal hospital.

"He is doing fine, but he will be at least another month in the hospital. His fracture was very bad," his father, Edwin Fisher, said after a bedside visit. Omaha attorney Fisher, Mrs. Edwin Fisher, Miss Robin Axtell, a friend, and her parents arrived two days ago.

Tom badly gashed the side of his head slipping down a rocky precipice of the Rothorn Mountain near Zermatt. He was saved by an emergency operation in the hospital but remained in danger and incoherent for several days.

'For Me And My Gal' Composer Is Dead At 75

New York (AP) — Remember that old melody, "For Me and My Gal"?

George W. Meyer, 75, who wrote the music for that hit and scores of other songs that have been hummed throughout America, died Friday in a fire in his bedroom in the Hotel Shoreham. His body was found in bed after smoke was seen pouring from his room.

Meyer wrote the music, too, for such songs as "Brown Eyes, Why Are You Blue?", "There Are Such Things" and "I Believe in Miracles."

Yet he was little known by name to the public. He shunned the spotlight. He seldom was seen in night spots or at first nights. He had none of the personal flamboyance often associated with Broadway or Tin Pan Alley.

But he was well-known in the music trade. He was a charter member of the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers, and was an ASCAP director for many years.

STOCKS DULL, IRREGULAR

New York (AP)—The stock market was subjected to mild pre-weekend profit taking Friday as trading grew dull again.

The general price level was irregular. Although slightly more stocks rose than fell, the popular averages of leading issues drooped a bit.

The trading element took profits early on some of the 2 or 3 point gains made in Thursday's moderate rally. Later in the day many of the familiar faces had left Wall Street for the weekend to escape the muggy weather.

The dull performance emphasized the trading nature of Thursday's rally, the week's best. Volume fell off to 1,930,000 from Thursday's 2,550,000.

There wasn't much news to spur interest and, in fact, some pieces of normally bullish corporate news had no apparent effect on dealings.

Motors took fractional losses as they backed away from their strong leadership of the preceding session. Steels were narrowly mixed for the most part.

Airlines and oils slid off gently. The pattern was irregular for chemicals, aircrafts, electronics and non ferrious metals.

The Dow Jones industrial averages edged off .28 to 663.06.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks dropped 30 cents to $230.90 with the industrials down 50 cents, the rails off 20 cents and the utilities unchanged.

The market narrowed down to a mere 1,141 issues traded. Of these 458 advanced and 446 declined. There were 23 new highs for the year and 15 new lows.

Of the 15 most active stocks, eight rose, six fell and one was unchanged, Studebaker-Packard.

Corporate bonds were off sharply on light volume. U.S government bonds dropped to historic lows.

Bond sales totaled $3,950,000 par value compared with $4,730,000 Thursday.

SOYBEANS DECLINE

Chicago (AP) — Broad general selling clipped more than a cent a bushel off all soybean futures contracts Friday and left them within a few cents of their low prices for the season on the Board of Trade.

Rye also was under stiff pressure and slumped 2¼ cents at the extreme but other grains were mostly steady to slightly easier.

Trading volume in soybeans probably was the heaviest of the weeks as longs pushed hard to sell out following release of a survey by Quaker Oats Co. that the crop had developed rapidly by the recent hot weather and is nearing maturing in several major producing regions.

The survey said that the month of August has been generally excellent for soybeans as plants took on additional development following good rainfall.

Over all, the survey said the improved crop condition shows prospects of producing 20 or 25 million bushels more than it showed on Aug. 1. At the time, Quaker said the outlook was for about 500 million.

Influences in the market otherwise were negligible. Wheat, corn and oats fluctuated most of the time within small fractions. The slightly easier finish in corn left all the distant deliveries only small fractions above their crop year lows.

Wheat closed ⅜ cent a bushel lower to ⅛ higher, September $1.90¼-¼; corn unchanged to ¼ lower, September $1.16¾-⅞; oats ⅜ lower to ¼ higher, September new type contract 66⅜-¼; rye 1-2¼ lower, September $1.29⅜-⅝; soybeans 1⅜-1¾ lower, September $2.03½-⅝.

Butcher Hog Prices Drop

Omaha (AP) — Butcher hog prices dropped 50 to 75c, instances more lower on the Omaha market Friday.

Fat cattle receipts were too light to test the market.

Fat lambs were about steady in week-end cleanup trade.

OMAHA

Hogs: Salable Friday 4,000; barrows and gilts 25 to mostly 50-75 lower; extremes 1.00 lower; sows weak to mostly 25 lower; U.S. No. 1, 2 and 3 200-260 lbs. butchers 14.00-14.50; around a double deck 14.60-14.75; 46 head 15.00; around 260-325 lbs. 12.75-13.75; sows 300-500 lbs. 10.50-13.25.

Cattle: salable 600; calves 125; hardly enough fed steers and heifers to test prices; choice 1,019 lbs. club calf steers 27.50; mixed high good and low choice 1,127 lbs fed steers 26.35; choice 861 lbs. fed heifers and small lots club calf heifers 26.25; cows weak; utility and commercial 16.50-18.00, few 18.50; canners and cutters 14.75-16.25.

Sheep: salable 300; market nominally steady; mostly good 80-90 lbs. spring slaughter lambs 19.00-19.50.

CHICAGO

Another broad setback in the butcher hog market took as much as 75 cents a hundredweight off prices Friday with offerings moderately heavier than on recent Fridays.

A spokesman at the stockyards said the week-long decline appeared to be related more to weakness in the wholesale pork market than to the possibility of a strike in the meat packing industry.

The supply of 4,500 head Friday brought the total for the week to 32,000, up 500 from last week.

Friday's top of $14.50 was 50 cents under the high of Thursday. It went for 175 head of No. 1 grade weighing 200-225 lbs.

The same weights of No. 1s and mixed 1s and 2s cleared at $13.90-14.25, the mixed 1-3 and 2-3 grades at $13.75-14.00 and heavier weights upward from $13.50.

Sows were $10.00-13.25 with prices 50 cents lower for that class.

Slaughter steers and heifers were steady in a fairly active cattle market where the supply was a small 300 head. Clearance for the weekend was good with a few choice steers bringing $28.00 and mixed good to choice $26.00-27.50. Heifers sold up to $26.00 for choice grade, vealers at $25.00-31.00 for standard to good grades and bulls at $19.50-23.25 for cutter to utility kinds.

There were a few good to choice spring lambs but the supply was too light for a price test. They cleared at $19.00-20.50 and the ewes at $4.00-5.00.

Hogs: 4,500; 25-75 lower; mixed No. 2-3 and No. 1-2-3 200-225 lb. 13.75-14.00; several lots No. 1-2 200-225 lb. 13.00-14.25; several lots sorted No. 1-2 14.25-14.50; mixed No. 2-3 230-300 lb. 13.50-14.25.

Cattle: 300, calves 100; nearly all classes steady; two loads choice steers 28.00; few good and choice 26.00-26.50; few head choice heifers up to 26.00; choice vealers absent; few standard and good 25.00-31.00.

Sheep: 200; receipts too limited for market test; scattered sales good to choice spring slaughter lambs 19.00-20.50.

SIOUX CITY

Hogs: 3,000; barrows and gilts 25 lower; sows steady; U.S. No. 1, 2 and 3 200-270 lbs. butchers 14.00-14.25; some No. 1 and 2 near 190 lbs. 13.25-13.50; sows 10.50-13.50.

Cattle: 1,500; calves 100; few choice slaughter steers steady at 27.50-27.75; cows about 50 lower; bulk unsold late; utility and commercial 16.75-18.00; individuals 18.50; canners and cutters 14.50-16.50.

Sheep: 800; not enough on offer to establish trend.

Kansas City

Hogs: 2,000; barrows and gilts mostly 50 lower; sows steady to 25 lower; U.S. No. 1-3 200-250 lbs. butchers 13.75-14.00; several lots 210-240 lbs. 14.15-14.25.

Cattle: 900; calves 100; slaughter classes very scarce; cows barely steady; canners and cutters 14.00-16.50.

Starling Startler Quits In Huff—Feathered Deluge Predicted

Mount Vernon, N.Y. (AP) — Otto Standke, the 71-year-old bird man from Kansas, ende his war on the Mount Vernon starlings Friday. He quit on a petulant note:

"Tell the people that the bird man is through with you," he said at his Hotel headquarters. They can keep their $4,000. I'm not going back against the starlings again."

For more than a week, Standke has been invading the starlings' roosting area with his self-made, anti-bird contraptions. They consist of aluminum cymbals which he claps together as he walks, and a string of metal chimes around his neck.

The chimes clang against one another as Standke jerks his shoulders and moves his head from side to side. He also carries a small box. Its contents, if any, are still a mystery.

Standke's nocturnal efforts in ridding the town of starlings have been a matter of civic controversy for days.

Most persons agree the starlings have abandoned their original roosting spots. But they also maintain the birds have merely moved to another part of town.

The Mount Vernon common council had agreed to pay Standke the $4,000 to rid the city of an estimated 10,000 annoying birds. They also gave him a week's time to do it. The period ended Thursday. There also was to be a 30-day waiting period just to make sure the starlings did not return.

"Only nincompoops or damn fools would expect me to do the trick in a set, definite period of time," the aroused Standke continued. "I'm not in the habit of doing business like that."

The Great Bend, Kan., bird man insisted that his war against the starlings in their original roosting spots had been a success.

"They'll never return there," Standke said. "As for the rest of the town, the birds will keep increasing until the place is practically buried under them by next November."

Innocent Plea

Omaha (AP)—James Edward Harding, 24, pleaded innocent to a first degree murder charge at his arraignment in District Court Friday.

He is accused of the Feb. 19 slaying of bus driver Richard Whitehill during a holdup of a tavern. Whitehill and another driver had stopped in at the tavern on their way home from a safety meeting.

District Judge Patrick W. Lynch set Harding's trial for Oct. 12.

Lawmen Probing Night Burglaries

Two overnight burglaries were being investigated Friday by city and county lawmen.

The Morris Mobil Service Station at 33rd and Holdrege was broken into and about $5 in coin was taken from the cash register.

The Lincoln Equipment Co. at 828 West O was broken into, ransacked and about $34 taken from the cash register.

2 Contracts Awarded For Hallam Plant

Lincoln Star Special

Columbus, Neb. — Two contracts for construction work on Consumers Public Power District's nuclear plant at Hallam were awarded here Friday by CPPD's board of directors.

The Korshoj Construction Co. of Blair was awarded alternate contracts for steel lining of concrete type tunnels, subject to selection of steel by the Atomic Energy Commission. One contract was for $220,765, the other for $248,700. The AEC will specify which contract will actually be used.

General Electric was awarded a $104,700 contract for installation of 5 automatic control panels, relay and carrier equipment in a voice communications system and for a 115,000 volt switch station.

A single bid for installation of 7 steel tanks was rejected on advice of the AEC manager at Hallam. Another bid of $60,182 to supply a motor control center, lighting transformers and other electrical equipment was held until the next meeting.

Consumers has now awarded 34 contracts, totaling more than $16,600,000.

Taipei, Formosa (UPI)—Nationalist China will ask the United States for $38,300,000 to help repair damage from recent floods in Formosa, authoritative sources said. Total damage caused by the floods is estimated at 94-million dollars, nearly half of it to agriculture.

Green Light For New City Wage Scale Expected

Lincoln's new salary and wage schedule for some 138 positions in the municipal classified service is scheduled to come Monday before the City Council.

It is expected the Council will suspend the rules in giving the new salary ordinance three readings Monday for passage with an emergency clause to make the proposed pay rates effective Sept. 1.

The new salary ordinance, amending those of 1947, 1957 and 1958, reflects the $25-a-month general pay boost for city employes and $40-a-month for policemen and firemen.

Some examples of the new maximums are clerk, $252.75; meter reader, $327.50; laborer, $1.55 per hour; concrete worker, $2.10; firemen, $357.50; police patrolman, $377.50; and heavy motor equipment operators, $1.66 per hour.
